

NEW Free Program in San Mateo County CHILD AND ADOLESCENT HOTLINE & PREVENTION PROGRAM (CAHPP)

Are you concerned about a child or youth?

- Any child or youth
- Any age (0-18)
- Any concern: Behavioral, emotional, or developmental

StarVista's new Child and Adolescent Hotline & Prevention Program (CAHPP) is a youth-focused (ages birth to 18) hotline, available 24/7, to support parents, educators, counselors, doctors, coaches, and members of the community in San Mateo County.

The focus of this free service is early identification of behavioral, learning, and development issues; referrals to appropriate counseling and support services; short-term counseling services; and follow-up services to ensure long term success.

For information and support call or text the CAHPP Hotline 24/7:
