Central Abbotsford Community School

What is a community school?

It is a designated school facility that is open beyond the traditional school schedule to offer a variety of community learning and recreational opportunities to people of all ages. Community schools are multi-service facilities working in partnership with other community agencies, organizations and individuals to improve the quality of life in the community. Our Community school will be running classes out of Abbotsford Middle School, Eugene Reimer, Clayburn Middle, Dormick Park Elementary, Jackson Elementary, Godson Elementary, Centennial Elementary and Alexander Elementary School.

What is our goal?

To enrich the lives of the people in our community by offering a wide range of cultural, recreational, and educational programs and opportunities.
