Dashed lines define horizontal and vertical lines. One way to transfer this to a wall is to put a temporary top screw in place. Hang a string from it with a small weight attached. Allow it to stop swinging. Measure down 6 1/2 inches. Mark the point. Use a level to define a horizontal line at this point. and measure over 8 9/16 inches and mark the second point.