

Michelle Danker is an Artistic Photographer, specializing in nature and landscape photography. Her journey with a camera started, when she was a student, as an editor of her high school yearbook. Her work is inspired by a desire to help others see the everyday world in a different and unique way.

