

Meet Gina

Gina owns and manages the Coffee Corner. Her family and guest at her shop enjoy her fun and lively personality, which by no surprise shows through her art.

She has always been interested in abstract art and thought it would be fun to try and express herself through paint. She likes seeing what she can create and finds it to be a “very enjoyable hobby.”