

Challenging Behaviour

A WORKSHOP FOR FAMILIES

Developmental Disability WA, the Side by Side Project, WAIS and the Disability Services Commission of WA are pleased to invite parents and other family members to come along and explore:

- ✓ Common myths about challenging behaviour.
- ✓ Why people behave in challenging ways.
- ✓ What is Positive Behaviour Support.
- ✓ Understanding each other (when challenging behaviour is in the way).
- ✓ How to develop plans for long term strategies which are going to be helpful.

This interactive workshop is being presented by a team of parents and professionals who have been working together and have identified real strategies of support that are achievable and lasting.

10am—2pm Thursday 7 April 2016
Broome Community House

About the presenters:

Debbie Lobb—is a behaviour support consultant working for DSC with over 20 years experience. She is passionate about helping people to see the person beyond the behaviour and to strengthen understanding about the reasons for challenging behaviour.

Craig McIver—is a clinical psychologist employed by DSC with experience in both disability and mental health. His work focus is practical application of positive behaviour support principles in collaboration with the people who matter in a persons life.

Jaquie Mills—is the parent of a young man with complex disability and challenging behaviours. She is currently project manager for a Family Leadership project hosted by DSC for families experiencing challenging behaviours.

Bronwyn Pike — Bronwyn has worked within a variety of human services with her focus on supporting individuals and families to plan, develop and self-direct their supports. Her current role has seen her working closely with families to co-design a family partnership model of support specifically targeted towards families who are living with challenging behavior.
