Romance

Feeling lost in someone's eyes
Makes your heart feel petrified
You think that he is the one
But truly, and surely
You know, and truly
Know
You have a romance
This feeling builds and builds
Till it might fall and break
But you try to be strong and
Hold up your head keep
Going and going you
Rush, rush
Rush a kiss that you know
Might never last
Tender, passionate, love
Romance
Keep going, love is all you have
Make chance, a choice
For a good romance
Push, shove let him know
That you're not fooling around
Keep talking, keep smiling
Because you'll never know
That you might have a romance
Romance
