

PEACE CORPS TRAINEES & STAFF

RAJASTHAN and MADHYA PRADESH

Village Level Food Production

DEVELOPMENT & RESOURCES CORP

16 JUNE 1968 — 10 AUGUST 1968

TRAINEES

Peace Corps Training Program

INDIA 55 & 56

Conducted at

Hemet, California

by the

DEVELOPMENT & RESOURCES CORP

16 JUNE 1968 — 10 AUGUST 1968

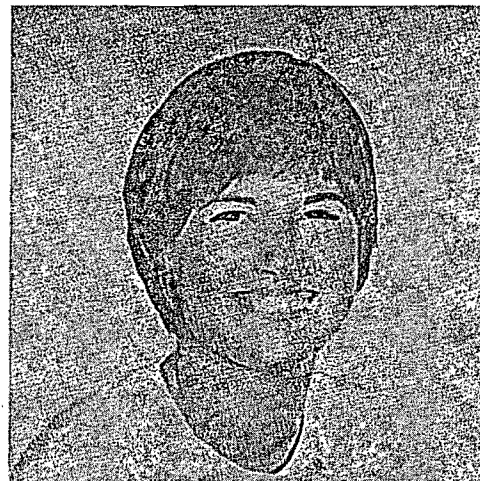

Randall W. Baxter (5-5-46)
c/o Delbert Sander, Stockton, Kansas

Mr. Baxter received his B.A. degree in Political Science from Ft. Hays Kansas State College. While there he minored in Russian, was on Student Council and belonged to Alpha Kappa Lambda Fraternity. He has worked in road construction, as a laborer on the railroad and on a farm. Mr. Baxter has traveled in Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, and Texas and enjoys reading, dancing and sports.

Marianne Benson (6-24-46)
315 Thornhill Road, Baltimore, Maryland 21212

Miss Benson received her B.F.A. in Graphic Design from the Rhode Island School of Design and held a minor in Ceramics and Silk Screen. She was active on the RISD Committee to end the war in Vietnam. She has traveled to Canada, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and along the East Coast of the United States. Miss Benson has been an Art Teacher, governess, lifeguard and has worked in a snack bar. Her hobbies are photography and swimming.

David P. Behrens (11-13-45)
711 3rd St., Sibley, Iowa 51249

Mr. Behrens hopes to pursue a career in international law. To prepare himself for this job he has majored in Political Science receiving his B.A. from Augustana College in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He attended the University of Iowa College of Law for one year after receiving his degree. While in college Mr. Behrens belonged to Phi Alpha Theta History Society, Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity and the Iowa Society of International Law. He has worked as a printer's apprentice, surveyor, in road construction and has also done saleswork which gave him a chance to travel in Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin and Illinois. His interests include International Relations, baseball and tennis.

Ruth P. Benziger (3-31-47)
282 Southdown Road, Huntington, New York 11743

Miss Benziger received her B.A. degree from Middlebury College with a major in Anthropology-Sociology and a minor in Education. While attending college she participated on the tennis team, on the Student Educational Policy Committee, was a member of the campus newspaper staff and worked for the Community Chest. She has worked with and taught handicapped children and adults as a fellowship student. Also Miss Benziger has been a writer for a newspaper and has worked as a waitress. She has traveled in England, France, Italy and Switzerland and her interests include tennis, sewing, cooking, reading and writing.

John S. Blackton (6-19-44)
Hantana Farm, Hamilton, New York

Mr. Blackton has received his A.B. degree from Cornell with a major in Political Science. In addition to Cornell, he has also attended Berkeley, Yale, the University of Wisconsin, University of Ceylon and the University of New Delhi. His travels are quite extensive and include trips to France, Italy, Lebanon, Egypt, Greece, Belgium, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Laos, South Vietnam, Japan, Cambodia, Turkey, India, Ceylon, Nepal, Australia, and New Zealand. Mr. Blackton worked for USIS and USAID in Laos and has also worked as a research assistant, bartender, and handyman. He enjoys hunting.

John W. Breen, Jr. (9-10-46)
325 Hills Street, East Hartford, Connecticut 06118

Mr. Breen attended Providence College in Providence, Rhode Island and received an A.B. degree in History. He worked as a bench mechanic for Pratt & Whitney Aircraft for three summers. He enjoys camping and the outdoors in general.

Robert T. Braun (2-6-49)
Camby Road, Verbank, New York 12585

Mr. Braun attended St. Lawrence University for one year. When he continues his education he plans to major in religion and minor in English. In the past, Mr. Braun has worked as a short order cook, farm hand and a Physical Rehabilitation Instructor. He has traveled in the United States in the Florida, Texas, New England and southeast areas, and also into Canada and Mexico. His interests include football, writing and the guitar.

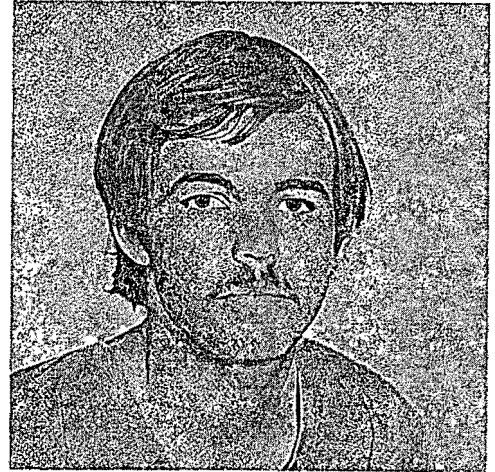

Robert J. Brunner (2-1-46)
27 Willets Road, Glen Cove, New York 11547

Mr. Brunner attended Heidelberg College and received his B.A. in Political Science with a minor in History. While in college Mr. Brunner participated in college radio station work, was on the yearbook staff and was a Director of Films. He has managed a beach concession, worked as a laborer in a shipyard, an office boy, assistant gardener and a cook. His hobbies are electronics, films and music. He has traveled throughout the mid-west, southwest and eastern seaboard of the United States.

Peter R. Clemons (11-16-46)
Folly Mill Road, Smithtown, New Hampshire

Mr. Clemons attended the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence and received his B.F.A. with a major in Graphic Design. He has traveled in Sweden, Germany, Norway, and Austria. He has worked as a cook, cashier and truck operator. Mr. Clemons' hobbies include photography. He has gained experience in operating a tractor and has done work with vegetables, flowers and some grains on a small farm.

James M. Crannell (7-12-46)
2346 Kohler St., Drayton Plains, Michigan 48020

Mr. Crannell attended the University of Michigan from which he received an A.B. degree with a major in Political Science. He was active in the Young Democrats and the Gilbert and Sullivan Society while at Michigan. He has worked for three summers on the assembly line of the Pontiac Motor Division of G.M. Corporation. Mr. Crannell's travel includes trips through the east and south of the United States and a little travel in the west. He enjoys reading, music, golf, swimming and politics.

James G. Conway (9-23-46)
Route 1, Reynolds, Illinois 61279

Mr. Conway received his B.A. degree from St. Ambrose College in Iowa majoring in Philosophy. His minors were English, Latin and History. While at college he participated in Student Government, was a NFCCS Senior delegate and belonged to the Big Brothers Club. He has lived on a farm all his life and is knowledgeable about beef, swine, corn and hay. Mr. Conway has also worked in highway and bridge construction and as a Fuller Brush Dealer. He enjoys most team sports, especially softball and baseball and likes to read philosophy.

Frank L. Crump (6-7-44)
Westover Charles City, Virginia 02030

Mr. Crump has attended Boston University for one semester and Tougaloo College in Jackson, Mississippi for 4 years. His major was Philosophy-Religion and while at college he was chairman of the Student Social Committee and a member of the Campus Christian Fellowship. Photography is Mr. Crump's hobby and he has worked as a photographer for a newspaper and as a writer-editor. He has also held jobs as camp counselor, hotel waiter and publicity agent. He has traveled throughout the eastern and southern states and has lived on a small homestead.

Mary B. Cunningham (3-22-46)
Twin Lakes, Minnesota 56089

Miss Cunningham received her B.A. degree in English from College of St. Teresa. She served on the campus social commission, was a writer on the literary magazine and was a member of Drama Club and the Philosophy Club. Her interests are in folklore and contemporary American literature and her hobby is sewing. Miss Cunningham has lived on a dairy farm all her life. She has worked as a file clerk, waitress, and hostess during the summer months.

Richard F. Della Costa (10-20-48)
1598 Center Road, Kendall, New York 14476

Mr. Della Costa has just completed his Sophomore year at Niagara University in New York with a major in English and minor in Philosophy. Soccer, dramatics (University Players) and the Catholic Youth Fellowship were his major college activities. During the summers he has worked in maintenance with the Hamlin Beach State Park and Eastman Kodak Company. Mr. Della Costa has always lived on a farm which had horses and cattle and grew wheat, oats, corn and legumes. Music and drama are his main interests and he has performed in Bugle Corps and played the piano and saxophone professionally.

Howard E. Daniel (8-13-44)
350 Crosby Ave., Deal Park, New Jersey 07723

Mr. Daniel received his B.A. in Russian Studies from Yale University after which he attended Harvard and received his A.M. in the same major. He participated in the Yale Freshman Chorus, Russian Club and also did some tutoring. During the summer he has worked as an assembler of electric guitars and amplifiers. Mr. Daniel's travels in the United States have been in New England, Chicago, Florida, New York and Pennsylvania. He has also traveled in Canada, Mexico, West Europe, Israel and the U.S.S.R. His hobbies include classical music and folk music, swimming, boating, water skiing, history and photography. In the summer of 1965 he worked on a Kibbutz in Israel.

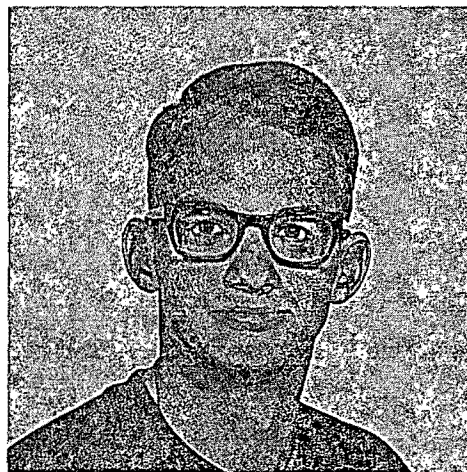

Leonard DeStefano (10-22-46)
618 No. McBride St., Syracuse, New York 13203

Mr. DeStefano majored in Industrial Relations at Le Moyne College and received his B.S. degree in that area of study. He was active in the Industrial Relations Association and Republican Club while in college. He has done carpentry work and worked in a grocery store and factory. Mr. DeStefano enjoys all sports and has traveled throughout New York and from New York to California and back by car.

Edward C. Davis (9-28-46)
15 Clifford Road, Southboro, Massachusetts 01772

Mr. Davis received his B.A. degree from the University of Massachusetts majoring in Economics. Track and Delta Chi Fraternity were his main college activities. He has held summer positions as a painter-carpenter and a factory worker. Mr. Davis has spent time on a farm during which he learned how to operate a tractor and some of the procedures in operating a dairy farm. He has traveled in New England, the East Coast and Mid-western United States and also in Canada. He enjoys sports in general and play reading.

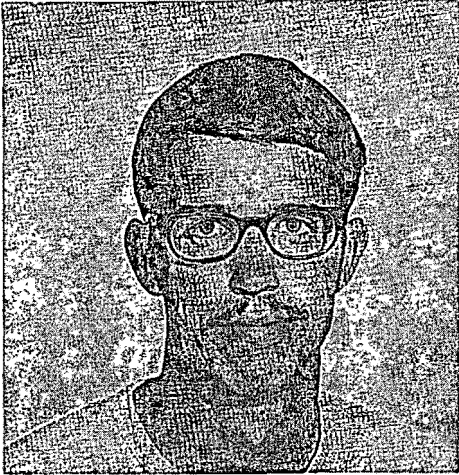

Walter J. Elwood (1-16-47)
5 Tower Road, Dalton, Massachusetts 01226

Mr. Elwood majored in Philosophy and had a minor in English at St. Anselm's College in Manchester, New Hampshire where he received a B.A. degree. He attended Berkshire Community College for one year before transferring. He was President of the C.C.D. and participated in Intermural Sports (softball and basketball) while in college. Mr. Elwood has worked as a water safety instructor during the summers and one of his hobbies is skin diving along with skiing and photography.

George W. Davis (4-5-46)
630 Laurel Road, Severna Park, Maryland 21146

Mr. Davis received his B.A. degree in Sociology from Western Maryland College; before transferring to Western Maryland he attended the University of Maryland for one year. During his college attendance Mr. Davis participated in basketball, track, lacrosse, student government, Student Opportunities Service and the school newspaper. He has done clerical work, worked on a state tree farm nursery as a laborer and done job and time study surveys. Mr. Davis has done some community development, recreation and library work in the Appalachia during the summer. He has traveled along the East Coast and west to Kentucky and West Virginia and also in Canada. Swimming, sailing, art work, fishing, camping and sports activities are his hobbies.

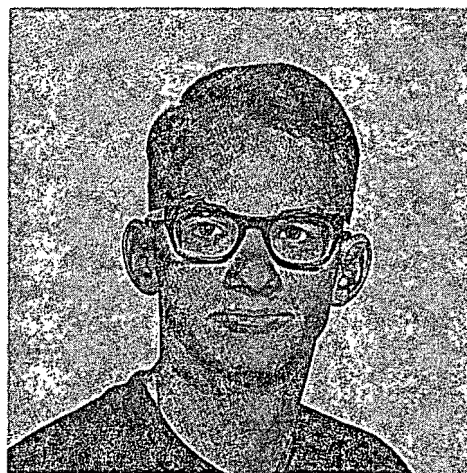

Constance E. Fairbanks (2-14-45)
1007 Triphammer Road, Ithaca, New York 14850

Miss Fairbanks received her B.A. degree from Cornell University with a major in Asian Studies and a minor in Russian. She has also attended Delhi University in New Delhi, India majoring in Hindi. While in college she was a member of the Outing Club, Figure Skating Club and Dramatics Club. Miss Fairbanks has worked as a salesgirl in Germany and in Yellowstone Park, a camp counselor and an office helper. She has lived in India for three years (2 years in Poona and 1 year in Delhi), traveled to Germany four summers and traveled around the United States. When in Germany she lived on a relatives farm. She enjoys hiking, ice skating, skiing and sewing.

Edward C. Davis (9-28-46)
15 Clifford Road, Southboro, Massachusetts 01772

Mr. Davis received his B.A. degree from the University of Massachusetts majoring in Economics. Track and Delta Chi Fraternity were his main college activities. He has held summer positions as a painter-carpenter and a factory worker. Mr. Davis has spent time on a farm during which he learned how to operate a tractor and some of the procedures in operating a dairy farm. He has traveled in New England, the East Coast and Mid-western United States and also in Canada. He enjoys sports in general and play reading.

Walter J. Elwood (1-16-47)
5 Tower Road, Dalton, Massachusetts 01226

Mr. Elwood majored in Philosophy and had a minor in English at St. Anselm's College in Manchester, New Hampshire where he received a B.A. degree. He attended Berkshire Community College for one year before transferring. He was President of the C.C.D. and participated in Intermural Sports (softball and basketball) while in college. Mr. Elwood has worked as a water safety instructor during the summers and one of his hobbies is skin diving along with skiing and photography.

Samuel S. Dill (8-14-46)
520 Fairview Road, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15238

Mr. Dill majored in English and received his B.A. from Union College in Schenectady, New York. He participated in football and lacrosse. He held summer jobs in construction, doing cement work and road maintenance. Sports, hiking, skiing, and canoeing are his hobbies and his travels include most of the United States.

John E. Droder (5-13-30)
698 Diagonal Road, Akron, Ohio 44320

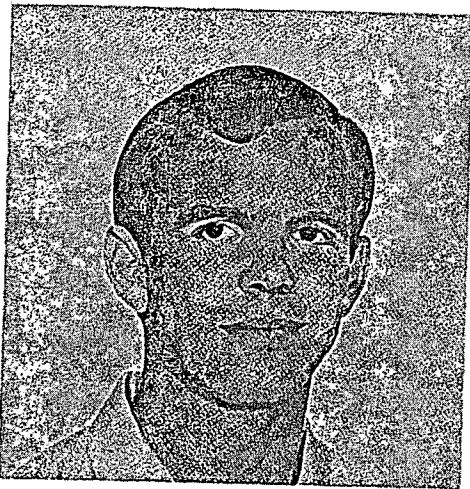

Mr. Droder has worked for Goodyear Tire and Rubber for 18 years servicing materials. He has also worked in a logging operation and on a farm. His travels have included Mexico and Canada and he enjoys hunting, fishing, swimming and camping.

Judith E. Doering (11-21-45)
268 Amesti Road, Watsonville, California 95076

Miss Doering attended Cabrillo Junior College for two years majoring in Social Work. She has lived on a farm, which grew plums and apples, all her life and during the summers she has worked in orchards. She has also done work in the Wells Fargo Bank for two years and the Fox Theatre. Her hobbies are chess and swimming.

Rosser D. Elkins (11-1-46)
225 Bamboo Road, Palm Beach Shores, Florida 33404

Mr. Elkins majored in Sociology and received a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Florida Presbyterian College in St. Petersburg, Florida. He participated in the college choir, Sociology Club, and chamber music groups (both vocal and instrumental). He has worked on a farm for several summers, done clerical work for an accounting firm, symphonic work and was a member of a dance band. Mr. Elkins took a tour of Europe which included such countries as Italy, France, Germany, Switzerland, England, Belgium and Austria. He enjoys music, horses, sailing and sociology.

William R. P. Jantz (7-18-42)
24625 Beck Drive, East Detroit, Michigan 48021

Mr. Jantz attended Wayne State University in Detroit for one year. He has worked as a draftsman for Fisher Body Division of General Motors and Chrysler Corporation in the general offices in Michigan. Mr. Jantz has traveled in Canada and in Vermont, New York, Texas and California.

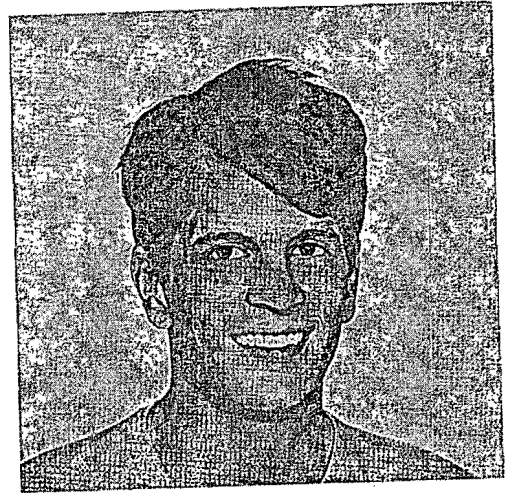

Robert A. Hunter (10-28-41)
1889 Farr West Drive, Route 3, Box 84, Ogden, Utah 84404

Mr. Hunter received a B.S. degree in Commercial Art from Weber State College with a minor in Journalism. He served as Executive Vice President of the Associated Students, was in Delta Phi Kappa, Blue Key National Honor Fraternity, Student Senate, was yearbook editor, and in Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities. Mr. Hunter has served as a missionary for his church in Germany and traveled in Austria, Switzerland, Netherlands, England and Mexico as well as in the United States. He has worked as a news-writer, assistant manager of a theatre, custodian and manager of the Commercial Art Center at Utah State University and Director of Art Services at Weber State College. He has done some farm work in crops and enjoys writing and art.

Thomas A. Farrell (12-6-46)
104 Putnam Pike, Greenville, Rhode Island 02828

Mr. Farrell received his A.B. in Political Science from Providence College with a minor in History. While attending college he was in the Political Union, Providence College Students for Peace, Law Club and was a member of the newspaper staff. He also attended the University of Fribourg in Switzerland. He has traveled in Europe to England, France, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, Italy, Germany, Austria, and in Canada and the Eastern United States. He has worked as a salesman of men's clothes and has worked in a Textile Mill. Mr. Farrell's hobbies are skiing, music and painting.

Jerome J. Geditz (5-14-45)
Ipswich, South Dakota 57451

Mr. Geditz has lived on his family's farm (2000 acres, wheat, rye, oats, barley, corn) all his life. He attended and received his B.S. degree from Northern State College in Aberdeen, South Dakota. His major was Elementary Education and his minor was Health and Physical Education. Mr. Geditz enjoys sports, singing and dancing.

Elsa E. Frettem (8-5-46)
Stanton, Minnesota 55081

Miss Frettem received her B.A. degree from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota majoring in Art and Psychology. She was raised on a 180 acre dairy and crops farm where grains, hay, corn, beans and commercial peas were grown. She worked with mentally retarded children for 2½ years at Laura Baker School for mentally retarded. Miss Frettem's travels have taken her to Canada, Mexico and Washington, D.C., Michigan and Kansas. Her hobbies are photography and sewing.

Charles J. Hall, Jr. (10-29-45)
Pawnee City, Nebraska 68420

Mr. Hall received his B.A. degree from Doane College in Crete, Nebraska with a major in History. He also attended the American University in Washington, D.C. for a semester under a special program. While in college Mr. Hall was in Delta Kappa Pi (social), Templar Society (Men's honorary), Phi Alpha Theta (History), Honor "D" Club, and was Senior Class President and played football. He grew up on a farm which raised cattle, hogs and chickens and grew corn, milo, hay, wheat and tomatoes. He has worked in a clothing store and done survey work. He enjoys hunting and golf and his travels in the states include Montana, North Dakota, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C.

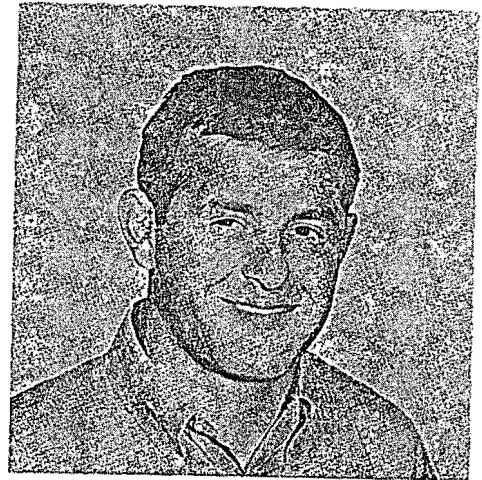

Thomas A. Farrell (12-6-46)
204 Putnam Pike, Greenville, Rhode Island 02828

Mr. Farrell received his A.B. in Political Science from Providence College with a minor in History. While attending college he was in the Political Union, Providence College Students for Peace, Law Club and was a member of the newspaper staff. He also attended the University of Fribourg in Switzerland. He has traveled in Europe to England, France, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, Italy, Germany, Austria, and in Canada and the Eastern United States. He has worked as a salesman of men's clothes and has worked in a Textile Mill. Mr. Farrell's hobbies are skiing, music and painting.

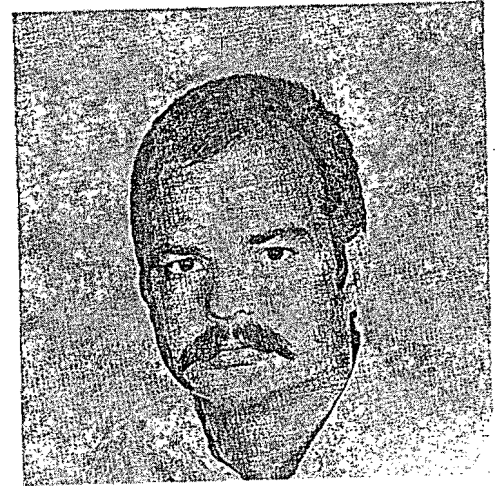

Jerome J. Geditz (5-14-45)
Ipswich, South Dakota 57451

Mr. Geditz has lived on his family's farm (2000 acres, wheat, rye, oats, barley, corn) all his life. He attended and received his B.S. degree from Northern State College in Aberdeen, South Dakota. His major was Elementary Education and his minor was Health and Physical Education. Mr. Geditz enjoys sports, singing and dancing.

Paul S. Hazelton (4-1-45)
Hebron, New Hampshire 03241

Mr. Hazelton attended Marlboro College in Vermont and received his B.A. degree in American Colonial History and had a minor in French History. He has lived on a farm most of his life where some cows, chickens and pigs were raised and learned how to operate a tractor and implements. He has done masonry work, worked with mentally retarded children and done haying and other farm work. Mr. Hazelton has traveled to Nova Scotia and his hobbies are hiking, skiing and photography

Bruce D. Newell (2-27-45)
190 Greenlodge Street, Dedham, Massachusetts 02026

Mr. Newell attended Quincy Junior College, Stockbridge School of Agriculture at the University of Massachusetts and Kansas State University where his major was Horticulture and he had a total of 4 years of college. He participated in the Senate, on the Men's Judiciary, the Rifle Club, Glee Club, Floriculture Club and Protestant Christian Council while at school. Four years were spent at an agricultural high school. Mr. Newell has worked as a salesman, lab assistant, desk clerk and on a factory assembly line. He has traveled in Quebec, Montreal and the New England and some Western States of the United States. He enjoys horseback riding, swimming, fishing, hiking and stain glass windows.

Richard E. Honn (9-8-46)
1224 Earl Avenue, Des Plaines, Illinois 60018

Mr. Honn received his B.F.A. degree in Art (sculpture) from Illinois Wesleyan University with a minor in English. While at college he was in a Jazz Band and wrote poetry and prose. He has worked as a sculpture' assistant, Emergency Room Orderly in a hospital and laying sod. Mr. Honn has traveled in Canada and almost everywhere in the U.S.A. He enjoys art, music, and literature and swimming.

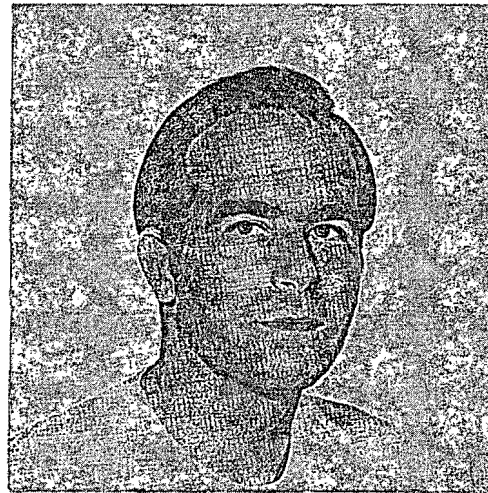

Dede M. Noll (7-16-45)
c/o Herbert Lewis, Sr., 450 Assembly Drive, Fayetteville, Arkansas

Miss Noll received her B.A. degree from the University of California at Berkeley with a major in History. While there she participated on the Campus Friends of American Friends Service Committee. She has worked on a farm and raised a lamb, two calves and has had two horses. Miss Noll has worked as a Volunteer for Operation Headstart, was employed as Senior Resident of a co-ed co-op at Berkeley and has work camp experience in Turkey and Italy. She has traveled in Switzerland, Germany, France and England. Her interests and hobbies are golf, back-packing, ski touring, cycling and rock climbing.

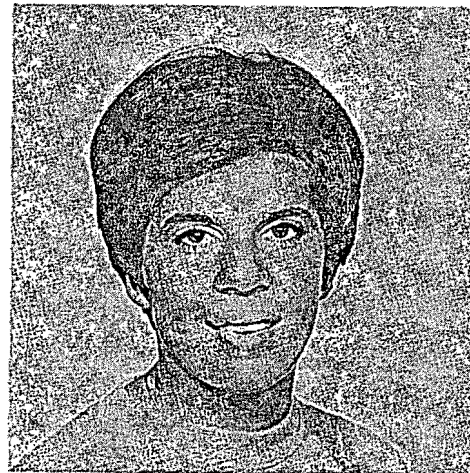

John P. Leland (7-15-45)
c/o John D. Wilson, 3023 W. Young Road, Fillmore, Calif.

Mr. Leland has completed one year's work toward his Master's degree in American Studies at Purdue University. He earned his B.A. in American Studies from Raymond College in Stockton, California. He has held a position as a Teaching Assistant at Purdue while in Graduate School. Mr. Leland has also worked as a research assistant, done ranch work on the family ranch, factory work, and worked for the U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service. He has traveled in Mexico and Canada and his interests are music, contemporary literature, swimming, tennis, the world and art.

andra M. Padrick (2-2-44)
50 East 49 St., New York, New York 10017

Miss Padrick attended Brewton-Parker College at Mt. Vernon, Georgia for one year before transferring to the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut. Her B.A. degree was earned in English Literature with a minor in History. While in college she was a member of Theta Epsilon Sorority, the University Debate Society, was a Resident Advisor, a member of Honor Council and on Campus Challenge. She was a Volunteer worker at Mt. Sinai Hospital, College Board Member of "Mademoiselle" Magazine and an editor in the children's division of Random House. Miss Padrick attended Peace Corps advanced training program in the Appalachia in Kentucky where she learned some farming. She has traveled in Trinidad, Tobago, Antigua, Barbados, Jamaica and she enjoys horseback riding, tennis, judo (yellow belt) and writing children's books. She hopes to take up diplomatic relations in graduate school after her Peace Corps service.

Judith MacInnis (9-8-23)
2002 Moss Street, Eugene, Oregon 97403

Miss MacInnis earned her A.B. from Western College for Women in Ohio with a major in Social Science. She then attended George Washington University and the University of Wyoming where she earned her L.L.B. Since then she has been an attorney in Oregon and Ohio. Miss MacInnis has some experience in farming especially in strawberries and grapes and farming is her main interest. She has served in the WACS and traveled a little in the United States.

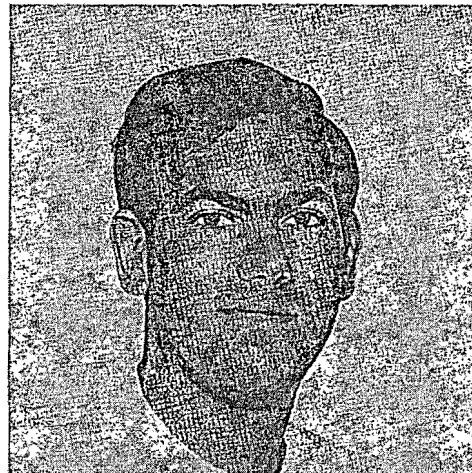

Brent W. Primus (12-4-46)
4535 E. Lk. Harriet Blvd, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55409

Mr. Primus earned his B.A. in Philosophy from Lawrence University with a minor in Economics. During college he participated on the Film Board. He grew up on a small farm where horses were kept and raised and has worked summers on "typical" Iowa farms which grew general crops and raised livestock. Mr. Primus has worked as a landscape laborer, delivery boy, legal investigator, constructed and operated a small ski area including the operation of heavy machinery and snow making. He has made brief trips to Canada and his hobbies include tropical fish, railroads and railroad history, films and reading.

David Prochaska (4-25-45)
6446 N. Livia Ave., Temple City, California 91718

Mr. Prochaska earned his B.A. degree from Stanford with a major in History. He attended U.C.L.A. for one year before transferring back to Stanford where he had originally started. While at Stanford Mr. Prochaska worked on the Stanford Daily Newspaper. He has worked as a hasher, a book salesman and selling ads for the classified section of the L.A. Times. Mr. Prochaska has traveled throughout the southwest United States and several times to Mexico. His interests are film and photography.

Lawrence D. Rublee (6-6-46)
5 Colony Road, Orchard Park, New York 14127

Mr. Rublee earned his B.A. degree from Alma College in Alma, Michigan with a major in theatre. Acappella Choir, Drama, and the Vice Presidency of the Union Board were his college activities. Mr. Rublee has worked as a Camp Counselor in Ontario, Canada and a water safety instructor and handyman at the same camp. He has gone on several canoe trips in Algonquin Park, Ontario, Canada and enjoys the guitar and swimming.

Rosalind D. Prochaska (1-11-46)
6446 No. Livia Ave., Temple City, California 91718

Mrs. Prochaska received her B.A. degree in History from Stanford. She attended Stanford-in-Italy in Florence for 6 months. The University Chorus, undergraduate Drama group, Overseas Campus Board, and Madrigal group were her activities at college as well as being a sponsor in a Freshman women's dorm. Mrs. Prochaska traveled to Scotland, England, France, Austria and Spain when she was attending school in Italy. She has worked as a leader for the Palo Alto Recreation Dept., was Head of playground and hasher at Stanford Sierra Camp, a Page at Palo Alto Main Library and Stanford Main Library and an assistant for a catering service. She enjoys singing and playing the guitar and is interested in art.

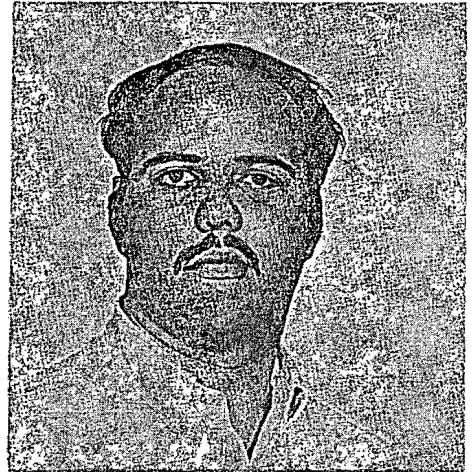

Vernon A. Saunders (9-14-45)
Whites Bridge Road, No. Windham, Maine 04062

Mr. Saunders majored in Pre-Law and minored in History at the University of Maine. He received a B.A. with Highest Honors upon graduation. Boxing and Circle K were his college activities as well as membership in Phi Kappa Phi. His summer and part time work during school consisted of jobs as a machinist, cook and Technical Processor in a library. Mr. Saunders has done some traveling in Florida and Canada and his hobbies are sailing, fishing and skiing.

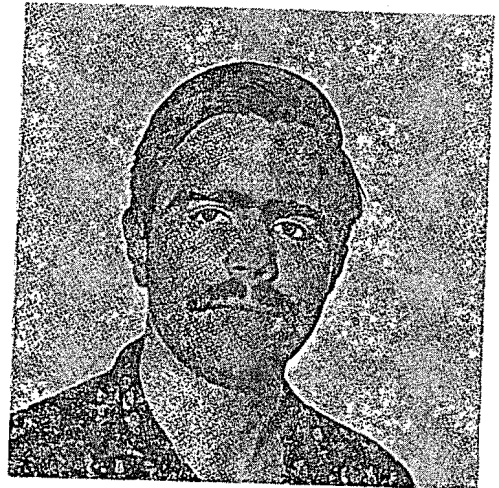

Robert J. Shull (7-30-46)
25 Linbrook Road, West Hartford, Connecticut 06107

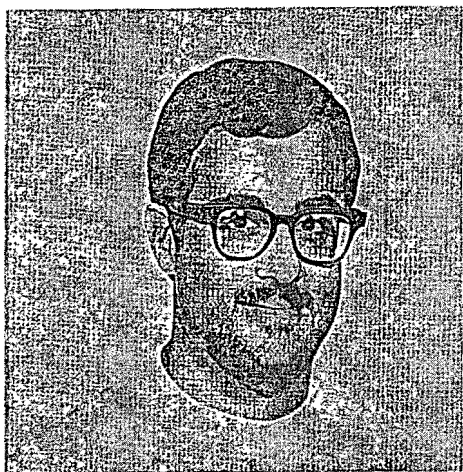

Mr. Shull majored in Political Science at Stanford University where he earned his B.A. degree. While in school he participated in the sport of lacrosse. He has spent a total of about two months in Italy. Jobs as a life guard, assembler and accountant and supervisor on a tobacco farm have filled Mr. Shull's summers. He enjoys folksinging and politics and after his Peace Corps service is over he hopes to go to law school.

Stephen L. Tobias (5-20-44)
c/o Lawrence, 400 West 58th Terrace, Kansas City, Missouri

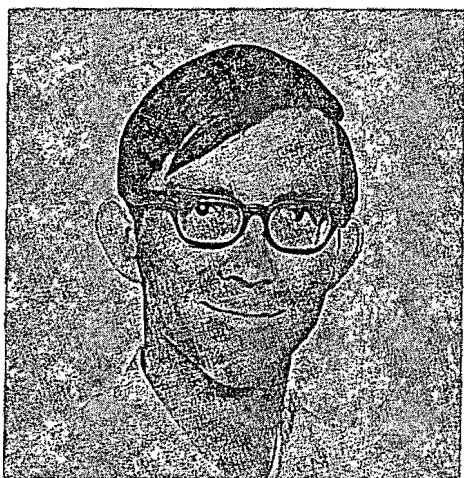

Mr. Tobias attended Antioch College and received his B.A. degree from there with a major in Philosophy. He then entered graduate school at Wayne State University and received his Masters Degree in Social Work. His college activities included the Motion Picture Activities Committee, photography, Political and Philosophical discussions and soccer. Mr. Tobias lived in Geneva, Switzerland for 4 years and travelled extensively through Europe to such places as Germany, France, Austria, Monaco, England, Israel, Italy and Denmark. His hobbies are photography, music, and philosophy. Mr. Tobias has worked at a variety of jobs connected with Social Work such as staff assistant to Committee on the Rights of Children in Juvenile Courts for the American Civil Liberties Union and work on a Housing Policy and Planning Unit.

Alan R. Stein (1-29-46)
17501 Tuba St., Northridge, California 91324

Mr. Stein attended Los Angeles City College for one year before transferring to San Fernando Valley State which he has attended for 3 years. He majored in Political Science and held a minor in Anthropology. He has traveled in 40 of the United States and in Mexico. Mr. Stein has worked as a Representative at La Salle Extension University and in the sales department of Saks 5th Avenue. His interests are sports and music.

Thomas A. Tritto (10-8-46)
95 Tenth St., Buffalo, New York 14201

Mr. Tritto earned a B.A. degree from Canisius College in Buffalo with a major in History. The campus paper, the Historical Society, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society and the campus radio station composed his college activities. He has traveled in Montreal, Canada, Washington D.C. and several other states. Mr. Tritto has worked as a supermarket clerk and china factory warehouse hand. Good music of all types, reading and good conversation are his favorite pastimes.

Dianne W. Stein (11-19-47)
17501 Tuba St., Northridge, California 91324

Mrs. Stein attended Pierce Junior College for 1½ years majoring in Anthropology and minoring in Geography. She has traveled in 30 states of the United States and in Mexico. Her interests are animals, children and music. Mrs. Stein's work experience has included a job as a receptionist, sales work and jobs in pet shops.

Ann S. Vanderbilt (10-15-46)
Oblong Road, Williamstown, Massachusetts 01267

Mrs. Vanderbilt earned her B.A. degree from Radcliffe College in Cambridge with a major in Fine Arts. She enjoys drawing and painting, singing, writing, hiking, swimming and riding and has acted in a theatre in Milwaukee. Mrs. Vanderbilt has traveled throughout the United States and most of Europe (England, France, Italy, Austria, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Greece) and studied for one year in Avesta, Sweden.

Rebecca Tobias (3-10-43)
c/o Lawrence, 400 West 58 Terrace, Kansas City, Missouri

Mrs. Tobias earned her B.A. in literature from Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio. The University of Wisconsin was the college where she first started her graduate work and from there she went to Wayne State University in Detroit where she received her Masters degree in Social Work. While in college she worked on the literary magazine and in ceramics workshops. Mrs. Tobias has held many jobs in the area of Social Work including in a home for the aged, and jobs through Antioch College work-study program and graduate school and for the California Dept. of Mental Health. She has traveled over most of the United States and enjoys ceramics, and arts-crafts.

William H. Vanderbilt, Jr. (9-14-45)
Oblong Road, Williamstown, Massachusetts 01267

Mr. Vanderbilt earned his B.A. degree in Government from Harvard University and then completed one year of graduate work in photography at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He participated in Frosh and Varsity Soccer and House Hockey, and was a Phillips Brooks House Associate. He has traveled through all European countries and throughout the Eastern United States and in Mexico. Mr. Vanderbilt lived on a dairy farm for 9 years and on a cattle ranch for 6 years. He has worked as a camp counselor, carpenter and a teacher of art, English and photography. His hobbies include hiking, camping, photography and sports.

Elizabeth G. Vanderploeg (10-28-45)
Route 1, Box 184, Hickory Corners, Michigan 49060

Mrs. Vanderploeg earned a B.S. degree from Cornell University with a major in Home Economics Education and a minor in Foods and Nutrition. Her education has been put to good use with a job as a Junior High School Home Economics Teacher and summer jobs as Assistant Dietitian and Assistant Cook for large camps. Mrs. Vanderploeg has traveled in Mexico, England, Scotland, Germany, France, Austria, Switzerland, Holland, Luxemburg, Italy and the Bahamas. She enjoys cooking, sewing and traveling and while in school belonged to Alpha Phi Sorority.

Richard C. Walker (1-19-45)
5264 Marian Drive, Lyndhurst, Ohio 44124

Mr. Walker attended John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio for 5 years majoring in Philosophy and Political Science. He has 9 hours left to complete his degree. He was on the Committee for Free Society and in the Philosophy Club and Political Science Club while in school. He has traveled in Australia, Fiji and Canada and enjoys just about everything, especially travel. Mr. Walker has worked in steel mills making pig iron and has driven trucks.

Ruard A. Vanderploeg (1-5-46)
Route 1, Box 184, Hickory Corners, Michigan 49060

Mr. Vanderploeg majored in English and received his B.A. degree in that field from Cornell University with a minor in Chemistry. He belonged to Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity at Cornell. He has worked as a newspaper reporter for two summers and a school bus driver and mechanic. Mr. Vanderploeg worked on a grain farm in Iowa for 3 summers where corn, oats, hay and soybeans were grown. He has traveled in Europe, Mexico and all of Central America plus the Bahamas. His hobbies are sailing, photography and writing.

Don C. Yager (6-10-45)
Box 188, Fenton, Iowa 50539

Mr. Yager has completed a years work toward his M.A. in Journalism at the University of Iowa where he received his B.A. degree in the same subject. He belonged to the Student Union Board, was in the concert band, in Sigma Delta Chi and on the University newspaper staff. He has done some farm work as a youngster on his uncle's farm. Mr. Yager has worked as an editorial editor of a newspaper and a Graduate Assistant at the University of Iowa. He has traveled in the Mid-west and in Canada. His interests are the piano and the organ.

Thomas A. Vander Ziel (11-22-46)
146 Watkins S.E., Grand Rapids, Michigan 49507

Mr. Vander Ziel attended Trinity Christian College for two years before transferring to Colvin College in Grand Rapids where he earned his B.A. degree in Philosophy and English with a minor in Greek. He has worked as a Language Lab Operator running tapes, a janitor, a farm laborer driving a tractor with implements, fixing fences, and irrigating, an assembly line worker and in the post office. Mr. Vander Ziel enjoys reading, swimming, bike riding, and electronics. He has traveled in Ontario, Saskatchewan and Alberta, Canada and in many areas of the United States.

Joseph F. Vosburgh (9-12-46)
Ravena R.F. D., New York 12143

Mr. Vosburgh has attended Marist College in Poughkeepsie, New York for 4 years with a major in History. During this time he has belonged to the Pre-legal Society. He has had some farm work during the summers and worked with tractors and implements and some cows. His other work experience includes construction, operation of construction equipment, soda jerk, cement plant worker, engineering assistant and work on a railroad. Mr. Vosburgh has traveled over the Eastern seaboard and enjoys mod-music and world politics.

STAFF

Peace Corps Training Program

India 55 & 56

Conducted at

Hemet, California

by the

DEVELOPMENT & RESOURCES CORP

16 JUNE 1968 — 10 AUGUST 1968

STAFF

Peace Corps Training Program

India 55 & 56

Conducted at
Hemet, California

by the

DEVELOPMENT & RESOURCES CORP

16 JUNE 1968 — 10 AUGUST 1968

Veena Aggarwal, Language Instructor
c/o Dr. S. R. Aggarwal; Box 8863, University Station, Reno, Nevada 89507

Miss Aggarwal studied at the Government Medical College in Patiala, Punjab India. She received a Bachelor of Medicine and a Bachelor of Surgery degree from the Medical College and has spent one year of residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology. Miss Aggarwal taught the Punjab language in the India #53 program immediately before this Rajasthan-Madhya Pradesh program. She has traveled throughout India and in California and Nevada.

Chander P. Ahuja, Language Instructor
2400 E. Bradford Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53211

Mr. Ahuja has been working as a Design Assistant and Designer with consulting engineering firms in Washington, D. C. and Milwaukee for five and one-half years. He received his education at Delhi Polytechnic in Delhi, India where he got a diploma in Engineering and at Milwaukee Technical College where he earned a degree in Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineering. Mr. Ahuja has traveled in England, Italy, France, United Arab Republic, Switzerland, India and the United States. This is his first teaching assignment in a Peace Corps Program.

Gail Bishop, FAO Secretary
218 Gloucester Way, Riverside, California

Miss Bishop is a student at Brigham Young University where she will be a junior next Fall majoring in Drama. She has worked for the Andhra Pradesh Irrigation Program as an FAO secretary and keeping all medical records. In the past Miss Bishop has directed a day camp program for the Riverside YWCA for children 5-10 years of age. She has traveled to Canada, Mexico and has done some traveling in the United States.

Promila Ahuja, Language Instructor
2400 E. Bradford Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53211

Mrs. Ahuja is now teaching in her sixth Peace Corps Program. In five of them she has been a Language Instructor and in one she was an Assistant Coordinator. She received a B. A. degree from Delhi University in New Delhi with a major in Economics and has completed one year's work toward her M. A. in Economics from Alegarh University in Alegarh, India. Mrs. Ahuja's travel includes the United States and India.

Robert Casey, Area Studies Coordinator
49 Broderick, Apt. 17, San Francisco, California 94117

Mr. Casey is a former Volunteer in India working in small industries. Since then he has done campus recruiting for the Peace Corps. He earned his A. A. degree from City College of San Francisco and his B. A. from San Francisco State College with a major in Economics. During college he worked for 5 years with Sears, Roebuck & Company. Mr. Casey has traveled in India, Ceylon, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Cambodia, Viet Nam, Hong Kong, Japan and the Philippines.

Girdhari L. Chadha, Language Instructor
8A/28 WEA, New Delhi 5, India

This is Mr. Chadha's second Peace Corps Program. His first was the India #53 Program for Punjab. Prior to working with the Peace Corps, Mr. Chadha had worked as a Management-Trainee for a chain store in Washington, D. C. He earned his M. B. A. degree in Marketing and Management from the American University in Washington, D. C.

Fred Englander, Assistant Language Coordinator
3980 Orloff Avenue, Bronx, New York 10463

Mr. Englander earned a B.S. degree in Math.-Linguistics. He attended City College of New York, Cornell, Michigan State and UCLA. He was a Peace Corps Volunteer in West Nigeria and has worked in another Nigeria program as a member of the staff. Mr. Englander has traveled in Europe and Africa and has taught mathematics in school.

Elizabeth A. Cripe, Secretary
640 E. Oakland, #A, Hemet, California 92343

Miss Cripe is in her first Peace Corps Program. She has previously worked at Mount San Jacinto College as a Secretary and has just received her A.A. degree from there with a major in Business.

Norman L. Frohreich, Deputy Project Director
R. F. D. #5, Box 141, Logansport, Indiana 46947

Mr. Frohreich was raised on a small farm in Indiana. He later joined the Navy and spent three years in Norfolk, Virginia with two deployments to the Mediterranean. In 1963 he returned to Indiana to work with Chrysler Corp. in quality control. Mr. Frohreich joined the Peace Corps in 1965 and was a Volunteer in the State of Andhra Pradesh in India. He participated in the training of India 46, Morocco X and India 53. He returned to the Mid-West to recruit for Peace Corps at college campuses in nine states. He has been working as Administrative Assistant in the office of Agricultural Development for Development and Resources Corporation since December 1967.

Janet Gerardy, Technical Studies Instructor
R. S. B. Route, Walsenburg, Colorado 81089

Miss Gerardy was a Volunteer in the India 13 Program for Punjab which was in the Technical area of Poultry. She majored in Anthropology at Otero Junior College where she received an A. A. degree and at Colorado State University and University of Colorado. Miss Gerardy has worked for the Rocky Mountain Language Association, in a drug store and a bank. She has traveled in Europe, Turkey, Cypress, India and through the East on the way home from her Peace Corps service.

Miss Prabba Gupta, Language Instructor
c/o Mr. O. F. Lau, 5846 Briar Hill Drive, Solon, Ohio 44139

Miss Gupta is now completing work on her Master's degree and should be finished in August, 1968. She earned her B. A. in Political Science in 1965 at Isabella Thoburn College in India. She has also attended college in Baltimore and Kansas State University where she is now completing her requirements for an M. A. Miss Gupta was a language instructor in the India 36 Program. She has previously worked in a Girl Scout Camp and as a Graduate Research Assistant.

Mrs. Christine C. Groppe, Nutrition Specialist
Morgan Hall 317, UC, Berkeley, California 94720

Mrs. Groppe is employed as a Nutrition Specialist by the University of California Agricultural Extension Service. She has a total of 23 years of experience in the agricultural extension service of California, Ohio and Nebraska. She has also taught high school in the past. Mrs. Groppe's educational background consists of a B. S. degree from the University of Nebraska and an M. S. from Michigan State University, both with a major in nutrition. She has also attended Hardin College in Missouri and Merrill Palmer in Detroit, Michigan. Her travel consists of Europe, Scandinavian countries and the Holy Land.

Wilma I. Hall, Secretary
Star Route, Box 179, Aguanga, California 92302

Mrs. Hall has worked in a Peace Corps Program for South Africa as an administrative clerk-typist. She has worked for the federal civil service for seven years as a clerk-typist and in other positions such as timekeeper clerk. At one time Mrs. Hall worked as a telephone operator. Mrs. Hall has traveled extensively in the United States.

Gary S. Isaacson, Chief FAO
3368 Lincoln Park Drive, Galesburg, Illinois 61401

Dr. Isaacson earned his B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the State University of Iowa and Missouri University. He has worked in two other Peace Corps programs as an FAO, one for Community Development in Thailand and the other for Education in the Philippines. Dr. Isaacson has been an instructor in psychology and assistant Clinical Psychologist at Missouri University and as instructor in psychology at Stephens College. His current full time job is as Director of Counseling Service at Knox College in Illinois.

Syed Husain, Language Instructor
6525 Wilderton, #108, Montreal, Canada

Mr. Husain has earned two B.S. degrees, one in Zoology from Osmania University, India and the other in Pharmacy from the University of Wisconsin. He has also earned his M.S. from the University of Missouri in the field of Pharmacology. He has worked in four other Peace Corps programs, all on University Campuses. Mr. Husain has been a Research & Teaching Assistant at the University of Wisconsin and a teaching assistant in the Inter University Rotatory Program. He has traveled in Canada, the United States and England.

Jack B. Irvine, Jr., Language Coordinator
322 21st Street, Sacramento, California 95814

Mr. Irvine has an excellent background in job experience and education. He attended Sacramento Junior College, Sacramento State College where he received his B.A., University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan where he earned his M.A. and the University of California Berkeley and Davis for two years. His major was linguistics and the teaching of English. Mr. Irvine taught English for 5 years in Afghanistan Institute of Technology, was the director of language cultural programs at binational center in Shiroz, Iran for 3 years, Director of American Language Institute in Baghdad, has taught in the United States in a juvenile hall school, American Legion Elementary, and as a foreign student advisor at Sacramento State College.

Ghulam Hur Hasnain, Language Instructor
Story House, Claremont Men's College, Claremont, California 91711

Mr. Hasnain majored in Anglo-American literature at Al-Hikma University in Baghdad, Iraq and at Claremont Men's College in Claremont, California. This is his first Peace Corps job but he has taught 8th grade English as a volunteer teacher. He has also worked as a clerk in a trading company in Baghdad, as an apprentice editor for the Baghdad News and had done social work with Project Open Future. Mr. Hasnain has traveled in Pakistan, Iraq and Lebanon and in most of the central and northern parts of India.

Leonard Libresco, Associate Field Assessment Officer
Orchard Park, Davis, California

Mr. Libresco has worked as an FAO and Associate FAO in the Nepal 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 Peace Corps Training Programs and in India 41 as an observer. He did his undergraduate college work at Queens College and Columbia University and his graduate work at University of California at Davis. Professional training was obtained at the Behavioral Therapy Institute, the American Management Association and Esalen Institute. In the past he has worked as a Counselor at the University Counseling Center, a Training Director for an electronics firm, Management Consultant and a copywriter. Mr. Libresco enjoys listening and talking, farm and fix-it work, sailing, hiking and bridge.

Dr. Curtis Dean Piper, Tech Coordinator
902 West Street, San Luis Obispo, California 93401

Dr. Piper is now in his third Peace Corps program. He has worked in a Niger-Chad Program as Coordinator of Tech. Training and in a Morocco Program as Tech Coordinator. Dr. Piper majored in History and Soil Science. He attended William J. Bryan College and Michigan State University earning his Ph.D. He has been a dairy farmer, worked in food services, done college teaching and been the Director of an Experimental Farm at Michigan State University. He has done extensive traveling in the United States and some in Canada.

Navin Chand Jain, Language Instructor
6-D Solano Park, Davis, California 95616

Mr. Jain attended Government Arts and Commerce College in India and Sacramento State College. He has earned a Master of Commerce and a Master of Economics degree. This is Mr. Jain's first Peace Corps Program. He has previously held summer and part-time jobs in India and has worked in a cannery in Washington during the summer.

Eugene B. Power, Tech Instructor
1272 2nd Avenue, San Francisco, California

Mr. Powers majored in Agriculture at Chico College for three years. He is a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer of India 19 for the state of Madhya Pradesh. He has been self-employed in business and agriculture and has traveled in India, Guam, Philippines and England.

Richard F. Rundell, Area Studies Instructor
Livingston, Wisconsin 53554

Mr. Rundell served in Pakistan as a Peace Corps Volunteer. Before that he had earned his B.S. degree in Agronomy from the University of Wisconsin, served in the Army as an Artillery Surveyor and managed the family farm. After finishing his Peace Corps service, Mr. Rundell did Peace Corps Recruiting and worked in three India Training programs. (India 44B as Tech Studies instructor, India 52 as Tech Studies instructor, and India 53 as Area Studies Instructor.) He has traveled in Malaysia, Thailand, Burma, India, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt, Israel, Italy, Austria, France, Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, Germany, England, Belgium, Netherlands, and Luxembourg.

Shiriman Sardar Surgit Singh Guraya, Language Instructor
3718 Clarington Avenue, #1, Culver City, California

Mr. Singh has been in the United States for six years; he came from Punjab, India. He is a substitute teacher in California and in India made his living as a snake charmer. He has been teaching Transcendental Meditation in the Bay Area. Mr. Singh has traveled in Europe and Canada. His great great grandfather was a Maharaja.

Inder Singh, Language Instructor
c/o Dr. Awtar Singh, 16726 Oak View Drive, Encino, California

Mr. Singh received his B.A. degree, with majors in English, mathematics and a minor in Punjabi, from Government College Faredkot, Punjab, India. He earned an F. E. L. degree (certificate course in Law) with a major in Indian Constitution Law, at Punjab University Law College. While in the United States Mr. Singh is studying for his M. B. A. in accounting from Fresno State College. He worked in the Agricultural Department and went to villages and agricultural farms as part of his job. He has worked as a Supervisor of Accounts in several jobs and as an Accounts Officer.

Paula A. Skinner, FAO Secretary
440 No. Thompson, Hemet, California 92343

Miss Skinner has had 3-1/2 years of college majoring in Social Science and Sociology. She has attended California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo and the University of California at Riverside. While at Cal Poly she was a Resident Assistant in a dormitory and has also worked part-time as a student assistant in the Vocational Nursing Department of Mount San Jacinto College. Miss Skinner has worked in the Morocco X and India 53 Peace Corps training programs as the FAO Secretary.

Richard F. Rundell, Area Studies Instructor
Livingston, Wisconsin 53554

Mr. Rundell served in Pakistan as a Peace Corps Volunteer. Before that he had earned his B.S. degree in Agronomy from the University of Wisconsin, served in the Army as an Artillery Surveyor and managed the family farm. After finishing his Peace Corps service, Mr. Rundell did Peace Corps Recruiting and worked in three India Training programs. (India 44B as Tech Studies instructor, India 52 as Tech Studies instructor, and India 53 as Area Studies Instructor.) He has traveled in Malaysia, Thailand, Burma, India, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt, Israel, Italy, Austria, France, Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, Germany, England, Belgium, Netherlands, and Luxembourg.

Shiriman Sardar Surgit Singh Guraya, Language Instructor
3718 Clarington Avenue, #1, Culver City, California

Mr. Singh has been in the United States for six years; he came from Punjab, India. He is a substitute teacher in California and in India made his living as a snake charmer. He has been teaching Transcendental Meditation in the Bay Area. Mr. Singh has traveled in Europe and Canada. His great great grandfather was a Maharaja.

Inder Singh, Language Instructor
c/o Dr. Awtar Singh, 16726 Oak View Drive, Encino, California

Mr. Singh received his B. A. degree, with majors in English, mathematics and a minor in Punjabi, from Government College Faredkot, Punjab, India. He earned an F. E. L. degree (certificate course in Law) with a major in Indian Constitution Law, at Punjab University Law College. While in the United States Mr. Singh is studying for his M. B. A. in accounting from Fresno State College. He worked in the Agricultural Department and went to villages and agricultural farms as part of his job. He has worked as a Supervisor of Accounts in several jobs and as an Accounts Officer.

Paula A. Skinner, FAO Secretary
440 No. Thompson, Hemet, California 92343

Miss Skinner has had 3-1/2 years of college majoring in Social Science and Sociology. She has attended California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo and the University of California at Riverside. While at Cal Poly she was a Resident Assistant in a dormitory and has also worked part-time as a student assistant in the Vocational Nursing Department of Mount San Jacinto College. Miss Skinner has worked in the Morocco X and India 53 Peace Corps training programs as the FAO Secretary.

Richard F. Rundell, Area Studies Instructor
Livingston, Wisconsin 53554

Mr. Rundell served in Pakistan as a Peace Corps Volunteer. Before that he had earned his B.S. degree in Agronomy from the University of Wisconsin, served in the Army as an Artillery Surveyor and managed the family farm. After finishing his Peace Corps service, Mr. Rundell did Peace Corps Recruiting and worked in three India Training programs. (India 44B as Tech Studies instructor, India 52 as Tech Studies instructor, and India 53 as Area Studies Instructor.) He has traveled in Malaysia, Thailand, Burma, India, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt, Israel, Italy, Austria, France, Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, Germany, England, Belgium, Netherlands, and Luxembourg.

Shiriman Sardar Surgit Singh Guraya, Language Instructor
3718 Clarington Avenue, #1, Culver City, California

Mr. Singh has been in the United States for six years; he came from Punjab, India. He is a substitute teacher in California and in India made his living as a snake charmer. He has been teaching Transcendental Meditation in the Bay Area. Mr. Singh has traveled in Europe and Canada. His great great grandfather was a Maharaja.

Inder Singh, Language Instructor
c/o Dr. Awtar Singh, 16726 Oak View Drive, Encino, California

Mr. Singh received his B. A. degree, with majors in English, mathematics and a minor in Punjabi, from Government College Faredkot, Punjab, India. He earned an F. E. L. degree (certificate course in Law) with a major in Indian Constitution Law, at Punjab University Law College. While in the United States Mr. Singh is studying for his M. B. A. in accounting from Fresno State College. He worked in the Agricultural Department and went to villages and agricultural farms as part of his job. He has worked as a Supervisor of Accounts in several jobs and as an Accounts Officer.

Paula A. Skinner, FAO Secretary
440 No. Thompson, Hemet, California 92343

Miss Skinner has had 3-1/2 years of college majoring in Social Science and Sociology. She has attended California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo and the University of California at Riverside. While at Cal Poly she was a Resident Assistant in a dormitory and has also worked part-time as a student assistant in the Vocational Nursing Department of Mount San Jacinto College. Miss Skinner has worked in the Morocco X and India 53 Peace Corps training programs as the FAO Secretary.

Patrick J. Weagraff, Project Director
2150 55 Avenue, Sacramento, California

Mr. Weagraff is a former Program and Training Officer for the Peace Corps in Nigeria. He earned his B. S. degree at State University of New York and his M. Ed. from the University of Maryland. He is now completing his work toward a Ph. D. His majors have been in Education-Training-Business. He has traveled in West Africa, the Middle East, India, Japan, Burma, Iran, Columbia, Argentina and in Europe. Mr. Weagraff has been Director of Education and Training for Litton Industries, a high school teacher, Assistant Professor at the University of Maryland in Teaching Methods and has worked for Westinghouse Electric Corp. in Training and as a Machinist.