

Society for History and Graphics (SHAG)

Thursday, Feb 21, 7:00pm - 9:00pm

MICA, Bunting Center, Room 410

(1401 Mt Royal Ave / Baltimore)

Social Content in the Applied Arts: Tapestries with an ax to grind! Revolutionary action figures! Utopia by the yard!

Presentation: Kathy Cowan

From the narrative to the iconic to the downright abstract and sometimes bizarre, this session presents a visual romp through the history of socially meaningful imagery as applied to decorative, sometimes functional objects that people could collect, display, wear, or use to set the table or make the bed.

Show & Tell: The Heart in Graphic Design and Illustration

We had a choice:
Groundhogs or Hearts.

Bring examples of the myriad ways the heart has conveyed messages in graphic design and illustration.
