

40 Years of Swiss Typography and Design

Richard Stanley, Adjunct Lecturer, McDaniel College

Richard Stanley will discuss the origins and developments of classic Swiss typography and design from 1950 to 1990. He will bring images and artifacts including posters, books, and school projects from the Kunstgewerbeschule Basel where he was a student of Armin Hofmann and Wolfgang Weingart.

All attendees are invited to bring favorite examples of Swiss typography and design from this time period.
