Asialaw firm highlights

Founded in 1975, Mah-Kamariyah & Philip Koh is a stalwart in the Malaysian legal market. The firm provides the full gamut of legal services, ranging from corporate finance to insolvency and civil and commercial litigation.

The firm boasts nine partners, including respected senior partner Philip Koh Tong Ngee. Koh has a diverse practice, and advises clients on corporate transactions as well as litigation. A client says, “Philip is very knowledgeable about finance and very commercial. We’ve worked with him several times and have found him very good.”

The firm was involved in the landmark RM4.5 billion merger between Sunway City and Sunway Holdings and the subsequent listing of the merged companies on the Main Market of Bursa Malaysia Securities. Partners also were involved in the RM700 million merger of Jotech Holdings, AIC

Corporation and AutoV Corporation, and the subsequent listing of merged company Globaltec Formation. Other IPOs the firm took part in include those of XiDeLang Holdings and Sentoria Group.

On the debt capital markets front, the firm frequently acts as either the trustees’ counsel or issuer’s counsel on complex shariah-compliant transactions. The firm acted as issuer’s counsel regarding the establishment of a US$1.5 billion medium term note programme by IOI Investment.

Partners are also active in corporate and commercial dispute resolution. The firm regularly acts for banking and financial institutions regarding general litigation matters, such as debt recovery and foreclosure proceedings. Aside from Koh, names to note include partners Datuk Ben Chan Chong Choon and Yap Boon Hau.
