

Dragon 1/32 P-51D Mustang

Scale: 1/32 scale

Manufacturer: Dragon

Parts used: Built out of the box

Main Paints used: Tamiya, Vallejo and finished in Alclad Chrome and Magnesium

Part one of this build covers the building of the engine, cockpit and fuselage.

Part two of the build covers the rest of the construction and the priming and spraying of the Alclad metal finish.

In part three of the build the decaling is done and detailing the model such as painting the spinner etc.

In part four we bring the whole thing together and fit all the remaining parts to the model and add the finishing touches ready for the reveal.

Total running time: 150 minutes

720 X 576 Hi Res DVD-ROM in WMV Format

Plays on any PC or Mac and new types of DVD players

Copyright 2009.

Please visit www.promodellers.com

Promodeller.com Video Build. Dragon 1/32 P-51D Mustang

Dragon 1/32 P-51D Mustang

Follow every step of the build with these DVD-ROM's video builds. Join Phil Flory from opening the box, right through to the final reveal at the end.

Phil has been modeling for the last 30 years and the last ten years as a full time model maker. His work can be found right around the world in museums and private collections. So let Phil guide you through the construction, sanding and filling, airbrushing, decaling, weathering and finishing on these fantastic DVD-ROM Videos

www.promodeller.com