FROM THE DESK OF FR. MIKE

Happy Catholic School's Week! This weekend we get to invite parishioners, school families and interested parties to come see for themselves the great achievements that take place within the walls of our school campuses. Open Houses are taking place today from 9:00am – 1:30pm. All are invited to come learn more about the School of St. Mary.

As we celebrate Catholic School's Week I am particularly grateful to Mr. Dave Wieters, our school principal for his leadership of our school. Thanks also to Mrs. Kathy Thompson, assistant principal, to our dedicated faculty, committed staff, energetic students, supportive parents and generous benefactors of the School of St. Mary. We are in our 101st year of Catholic education, celebrating and growing in our love of God.

This weekend you will hear from school families about how important St. Mary's is to them. Thanks to all of the students and families who participated in the Masses at both St. Patrick's and St. Mary's this weekend.

Please note that as we enter into Catholic Schools Week, Monday morning Mass on January 29th will be celebrated at 6:30am and 9:15am. (There will be no 8:00am Mass on January 29th.) Come and join our Upper Grade Center school community at 9:15am.

Thanks to all who helped strive to exceed the challenge of providing 300 bags of groceries and or household items to our parish effort to Pack the Pantry of our Sharing Parish Most Blessed Trinity in Waukegan. Last Sunday there were three bags donated by some very eager and generous parishioners to the Religious Education Center. A note was sent to Sean Jordan about the donation; "3 bags received, 297 to go!" Thanks to the youth for helping with the parish effort this weekend to Pack the Pantry.

An invitation is being extended to all men in the Church of St. Mary. You are invited to become involved in the Church of St. Mary Men's Club. "The Church of St. Mary Men's Club using our time, talent, and treasure, is dedicated to fostering a place for men to come together in community to grow as individuals and as members of the Church of St. Mary. Members of the Church of St. Mary Men's Club (COSMMC), called by God, will come together to share experiences, develop camaraderie, and gain a fresh perspective on life and incorporate faith and spirituality into the many roles we play in life (husband, father, professional, etc.). The Church of St. Mary Men's Club is open to men 21 and older." If you would like information sent to you, send your contact information to Mike Lucas at mensclub@churchofstmary.org. I look forward to the many opportunities that the Men of St. Mary's will respond to as the Holy Spirit directs and guides our efforts.

Donations are being accepted to support Catholic Charities Diaper Drive this month.

This weekend is the Announcement Weekend of the Archdiocese of Chicago Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA). The Archdiocese has set our parish goal for the 2018 ACA at $112,182. Information about the Appeal is available at the tables as you enter church today. If you have generously supported the Appeal in the past you would have already received information sent to you in the mail. Let's pray together for the success of the Annual Catholic Appeal across all of the parishes in our Archdiocese. Next weekend, as a parish community we will be able to make a commitment to the success of the Appeal at St. Mary's during Commitment Weekend of the 2018 ACA!

Next weekend our Sunday evening Mass is being moved to 5:00pm. Please plan accordingly. Thank you!

God be with you with a joyous and renewed faith.

Fr. Mike Nacu

Annual Catholic Appeal 2018

Karen Callaway/Chicago Catholic

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The call of Jesus echoes across the generations and is ever the same: Come, follow me. These words of Jesus have been chosen as the theme for the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal. We are living in a graced time of renewal here in the Archdiocese of Chicago. In a fresh way, we are reclaiming the call to follow Jesus as his disciples. He calls us both individually and as a community, in which we are responsible for one another.

Our Annual Catholic Appeal brings us together to live out our responsibility in that community of discipleship. By each of us joining in the Appeal together, we sustain Catholic schools and parishes in need, support programs of religious education, ministerial formation, and many initiatives for the protection of life and the promotion of peace and justice. Through the Annual Appeal, we also support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services which care for people across the globe who struggle and suffer because of natural disasters and the ravages of war. We are all connected to one another in Jesus as his disciples, and we can express that connection through our support of the Appeal.

Join me and other disciples across the Archdiocese in making a generous offering to the Annual Appeal. Once again, I pledge that we will be good stewards of your gifts. And remember that once your parish reaches its goal, 100 percent of the over-goal contributions will be returned to your parish.

Pray for the people who will benefit from your generosity. And, of course, please pray for me, as I am always praying for you.

May God bless and keep you and all your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Card. Blase Cupich

March for Life Chicago 2018

On January 14, March for Life Chicago drew over 6,000 participants and included speakers ranging from Cardinal Cupich to Jeanne Ives, candidate for Governor. Busloads of marchers came from all over the Midwest to crowd the Federal Plaza in Chicago and defend life at all of its stages. St. Mary's group included 6 youth (four from Sol Youth Ministry and two high school COR students) as well as Fr. Michael Grzesik, Deacon Jack Herrmann, and Youth Minister Terese Halm. We are very appreciative of the grant provided by our Knights of Columbus group that provided funds for the bus trip.

Leonardo Defilippis' one-man religious theater production, Vianney, opens amidst the chaos of the French Revolution. This period in French history mirrors the secularization, materialism, and anti-religious sentiment of our own day. Because of these parallels, Vianney is a powerful tool for the evangelization of our contemporary culture. Against this dramatic backdrop, a simple peasant priest enters Ars. This backwater town is a place where no one cares much about their faith. They don't expect much out of John Vianney either, but then the impossible begins to happen. Through John's example, love, and sacrifice, the townspeople begin to change.

This is a story of perseverance against all odds. It is the story of a humble pastor with a passion for souls. He'll do anything to save a sinner. Played with Leonardo's warmth, humor, and insight, Saint John Vianney is a man with whom audiences fall in love.

Readings for the Fourth Week in Ordinary Time

Monday, January 29, 2018
2 Sm 15:13-14, 30; 16:5-13; Ps 3; Mk 5:1-20

Go home to your family and announce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you. In today's readings, David and Jesus are each confronted by men who are, one might say, unhinged. One is possessed by so much grief and anger that he meets David and his heavily-armed soldiers with only stones and curses. Jesus encounters a man raging against the chains and the demons that bind him. In both cases, these violent ones are treated with compassion. David allows his attacker to live, explaining that God may have made him that way. Jesus exorcises the demoniac of his legion of demons and tells him to return to his family and praise God. If social media is any indication, there are a lot of raging folks out there. Perhaps we can take a lesson from David and Jesus. Meeting fire with fire is a surefire way to burn up the world. Let us tell the truth, but calmly! Gentle Jesus, make me an instrument of your peace.

Tuesday, January 30, 2018
2 Sm 18:9-10, 14b, 24-25a, 30-19:3; Ps 86; Mk 5:21-43

Daughter, your faith has saved you …. So many lovely details: the woman, whom Jesus calls daughter, and the only woman so addressed by Jesus in the Gospels, has suffered for 12 years which is the very age of the dying and much-loved daughter of Jairus. Jairus is a synagogue official who would likely have turned away the unclean woman, the very one Jesus heals and, in so doing, keeps Jairus and his daughter waiting. It seems that Jesus is equally available to the rejected and the much-loved. We should be, too. Jesus, thank you for the grace of your presence; when it is time, allow us to reveal your face to another, we pray.

Wednesday, January 31, 2018
2 Sm 24:2, 9-17; Ps 32; Mk 6:1-6
Saint John Bosco, Priest

A prophet is not without honor except in his native place…. A therapist friend confessed that his son preferred to tell his troubles to a particular attendant at a nearby gas station. That's a perfect example of how children welcome the wisdom of a stranger and ignore the very same advice from their parents. Likewise, often congregations hear better when a visiting preacher takes the pulpit. The Gospel text says, "He was amazed at their lack of faith." There's hope though. If we do as we say others should do, if we practice what we preach, it will be noticed, remembered and very possibly imitated. Help us to be open to truth wherever we encounter it and be an expression of the truth for others, we pray.

Thursday, February 1, 2018
1 Kgs 2:1-4, 10-12; 1 Chr 29; Mk 6:7-13

He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts. Last summer, my daughter and I packed twelve years of accumulated belongings and moved across the state. In the months before we moved, we also donated or sold furniture, clothes and other household items that we decided we didn't need anymore. Even so, it took three men over four hours to load the moving truck with all our stuff. Our bags were definitely not empty! Are Jesus' instructions realistic for disciples today? What was Jesus trying to teach his disciples? Like the Israelites in the desert, Jesus wanted them to trust God to provide what they needed. For us today, perhaps this story is a reminder to let go of stuff and depend more fully on God. Holy God, help us understand that our possessions may keep us from fully responding to your call.

Friday, February 2, 2018
Mal 3:1-4; Ps 24; Heb 2:14-18; Lk 2:22-40
Presentation of the Lord

Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation. Christmas was a little over a month ago, but today we hear of Mary and Joseph taking the baby Jesus to the Temple for the rites of purification. So yes, Christmas is over, but Christmas is much more than a single day or season. God's coming into the world in human form means that celebrating Christmas should help us learn to recognize Christ, just as the shepherds did, just as the Magi did, just as Anna and Simeon did. Did any of them expect God to come as a baby? A baby born to poor parents? Probably not. But because they were nonetheless ready and willing to see God in unexpected people and places, the world will never be the same. We will never be the same. God of love and light, open our eyes to recognize Christ in our midst.

Saturday, February 3, 2018
1 Kgs 3:4-13; Ps 119; Mk 6:30-34

Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while. Getting away from it all, that's all Jesus wanted to do. I have days like that, and I bet you do, too. Days when the calendar is just too full, when the needs are too many, when there's not enough of you to go around. Discipleship and ministry are demanding. Jesus and his disciples do get away, but their rest doesn't last very long; the crowds follow, people who were sick and hungry and in every kind of need. Remarkably, Jesus isn't annoyed or resentful; his heart is "moved with pity for them." A little later in Mark's Gospel, Jesus is finally able to get away from the crowds and renew his spirit. Perhaps we need to add to our calendars specific times for prayer and rest. When we are feeling overwhelmed, O God, grant us rest and peace.

Church of St. Mary Religious Education Program 2017-2018

On January 20 and 27, 2nd graders of the parish received the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. As part of their preparation, students and parents participated in Reconciliation retreats earlier this month which included a discussion of choosing right from wrong, developing a conscience, taking responsibility for our actions, and, when necessary, asking for forgiveness. The children were reminded that God is our loving Father who rejoices when His child returns to Him, as a shepherd rejoices after a lost sheep has been found. Another aspect of their formation was modeling of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The children learned that Reconciliation is a celebration of God's mercy and leaves us with feelings of peace, joy, and love. We ask for your prayers as these young children continue to grow in their faith and anticipate the day they will approach the altar for the very first time in Holy Communion.

In Memory

Please remember in your prayers those who have gone to their eternal rest with Our Lord, especially:

Tai Young Kim
(father of Susan [Thomas] Danneker)

Patrick Mullady, Sr.
(father of Conor, Molly, Daniel, Michael, and Patrick, Jr.)

"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties."

1 CORINTHIANS 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future.

Giving unto the Lord
