

Stewardess – Victorine Pace

Victorine is French-American; she was born in the beautiful French Alps. She spent most of her childhood on the Caribbean island of Saint Maarten. Being raised in a multi-cultural home has allowed Victorine to develop a diverse personality that is both understanding and adaptive.

After graduating with a baccalaureate in Marketing she was looking for an adventure and had the desire to travel. She was then introduced to the yachting industry. Growing up next to the ocean, she was immediately drawn to this lifestyle.

Victorine has the delicacy and finesse to ensure all your needs are met aboard Perle Bleue. Her attention to detail and willingness to go the extra mile will provide the most stellar service and ensure a most pleasurable stay.

When Victorine has spare time she likes to spend it with her family, she likes to read and enjoys outdoor activities and is always interested in visiting new places around the world.
