

---

PERLE BLEUE

Captain – Marcus VanOort

Marcus was born in New York, and raised in the suburbs of the city. After two years of college, he entered into an 18-year career in restaurants, culminating with 10 years as owner/operator of a well-known Bar & Grill in Manhattan. Vacations during those years always brought Marcus to the tropics, and a seven-year career as scuba instructor in both the Caribbean and Pacific came next.

Diving naturally brought many days on boats, ships, and yachts, and Coast Guard licensing was to follow. Marcus has been in command of many fine and well-known yachts such as SYCARA IV, NEVER ENOUGH, and since 2011 has proudly been leading the very competent crew of the PERLE BLEUE.

He has the combined experience to handle any situation with dedication, strength of character and as importantly with good humor and a steady temperament.