Since the age of six years the voice of Nicole Candian has graced the airways. In her several decades of providing voice art she has recorded tens of thousands of commercials, trainings, videos and webinars. An exceptionally talented professional she has honed her skills to a fine art. From commercial reads of every style her panache to promote or invoke a mood with her voice is unparalleled. Nicole's passion is in her animated character voice development and mimicing. Astounding and delightful are just a few of the attributes that make Nicole Candian a must audition for your animated project.
