Camper’s Expectations

While at this camp I intend to be a positive influence on others and the surroundings. Therefore I will follow these six expectations.

1. I expect to participate in every aspect of this camp to the best of my ability, attending and cooperating in all portions of the program.
2. I expect to conduct myself in a responsible manner at all times.
3. I expect this camp to enhance my physical, social, mental and spiritual well being and will therefore not use or possess drugs, alcohol or tobacco products at this camp.
4. I expect to make a positive impact at this camp and will therefore dress appropriately at all times. If I am unsure about the meaning of “dress appropriately” I will ask the camp leader for clarification.
5. I expect God to touch my life through this camp.
6. Please respect the Talbott’s privacy and use the port-a-potties that have been provided.
7. Please respect the Talbott’s property!

Camper Feedback

1. What has been your favorite activity during camp?

2. List any activities that you would like to see at future camps.

Directions to camp are as follows:

Take Highway 130 towards Centennial. Drive approximately 21 miles to the HWY 11 turn off. Turn south onto Highway 11 towards Albany and drive 8 ½ miles to Fox Creek Road (main gravel road going left). Turn left onto Fox Creek Road. Once on Fox Creek road, you will go 100 yards (just past the big row of mailboxes) and take the FIRST LEFT immediately after the mailboxes. Keep on the well traveled main drive for about 2 miles and it will bring you right into the Talbott Ranch buildings up on the side of Sheep Mountain. You can not see the buildings from the road.
