

CARRIE PRIETO

premiersothebysrealty.com

Carrie Prieto brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to Premier Sotheby's International Realty. She began her real estate career after moving to Orlando in 2004 and first worked for Centerline Homes as the regional sales and marketing director. Carrie would go on to have her own international real estate brokerage and then was managing broker for a firm in downtown Orlando, where she facilitated a 330% growth which tripled the office in size and sales volume.

She is a member of several real estate organizations, including the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), the Florida REALTORS® association, the Orlando Regional REALTOR® Association and the Women's Council of REALTORS®.

Carrie chose to work for Premier Sotheby's International Realty because of the Sotheby's International Realty® history, tradition and quality. In addition, she was fascinated by the level of service that the company provides to both its associates and its customers. She feels that consistency is key, and with Sotheby's International Realty, you know you are getting the highest standard of luxury. Carrie is a licensed real estate instructor with the state of Florida.

A former opera singer in New York City, Carrie speaks Spanish, Portuguese, French, German and Italian. Outside of real estate, she has been involved with the March of Dimes organization and the Garden Theatre. Carrie is the mother of three, two of which attend Windermere High School while her oldest is currently studying pre-med at Johns Hopkins University. She has been married to her college sweetheart for 22 years.
