

HOLDING SUTTER & CPMC ACCOUNTABLE

“As usual, management is dragging its feet and showing no concern for our priorities. We need to come together and demonstrate our unity to CPMC, and then we’ll start making real progress in negotiations. In unity there is strength.”

-Rudy Balagtas, EVS, California campus

NUHW’s elected bargaining committee is at work correcting all the language in our contract that SEIU agreed to that set us backward. Among our goals are:

- ✓ Restoring job posting rights
- ✓ Closing the loophole on subcontracting and job security for the Cathedral Hill expansion in light of CPMC’s deceptive practices with the City
- ✓ Improving our health insurance
- ✓ Fighting for fair wages and no takeaways

MANAGEMENT IS DRAGGING ITS FEET IN NEGOTIATIONS AND REFUSING TO PAY ATTENTION
TO OUR CONCERNS AS CAREGIVERS. THAT’S WHY IT’S CRITICAL TO SHOW CPMC THAT WE’RE UNITED FOR A FAIR CONTRACT NOW!
