

May	June	July	August	September	October	November
Saturday 16th Tate House Garden Committee Annual Herb and Plant Sale 9am- 2pm	Sunday 7th Tea Time at the Tate House 1PM-4PM	Tuesday 7th Lecture Series Quilting Through the Ages 6:30pm to 8pm	August 8th Puppet Show 1pm to 3pm Education of the Tate Boys	September 15th 6:30pm to 8pm Early New England Gravestone History	Saturday 10th Tate House Ramble to Strawberry Banke	Saturday the 7th Fundraiser dinner with Colin Woodard Speaker
Saturday 30th Opening Day 10am to 4pm Tours on the Hour Last tour 3PM	Saturday 20th 1pm to 3pm Quilting Bee		August 11th 6:30pm to 8PM Genealogy Lecture By Carol P. McCoy PHD		Saturday 17th 12noon to 4pm Stroudwater Cemetery Tours and Bake Sale	Tuesday 10th 5pm to 7:30pm Member and Volunteer Appreciation Buffet and 20% gift shop sale
	Tuesday 30th Summer Lecture Series Stroudwater Poetry Marcia Brown and Alice Persons 6:30PM-8PM				Saturday 24th 12noon to 4pm Stroudwater Cemetery Tours and Bake Sale

Tate House Museum

Calendar of Events 2015

VISIT COLONIAL TATE HOUSE

A NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK
BUILT 1755 ~ IN PORTLAND MAINE

1267 WESTBROOK STREET
PORTLAND, ME 04102
207.774.6177
info@tatehouse.org
www.tatehouse.org

TATE HOUSE MUSEUM
Calendar of Events 2015

Tate House Museum Garden Annual Herb and Plant Sale

Saturday May 16th 9AM to 2PM

Volunteers provide herbs from local nurseries for interested shoppers to peruse and purchase. Some Tate House enthusiasts include perennials from their own carefully tended gardens. Profits from the sale benefit the Museum programs.

Tea Time at the Tate House

Sunday June 7th 1PM to 4PM

Nellie's Teas will be pouring tea and serving scones with clotted cream, lemon curd and jam in our garden along with tea lore to add to the occasion. Last year was such a resounding success we decided to repeat it.

General Admission $16.00

Docents and Members $12.00

Summer Lecture Series

Tuesday Evenings 6:30PM to 8:00PM

Admission $10.00

June 30th Stroudwater Poetry, Readings by current poet laureate of Portland Marcia Brown and Alice Persons on the Tate House lawn by the Stroudwater river.

July 7th Quilting Through the Ages

A brief history of the evolution of quilting and quilts. Samples, techniques, tools and fabrics used throughout history

August 11th Genealogy

Lecture by Carol P. McCoy PHD

Creating Maine Towns, process and records.

September 15th Early NE Gravestone History

by Jessica Siraco and Lin Brown of the Friends of Evergreen Cemetery in Portland.

Family Fun Days

Saturdays 1PM to 3PM

Admission $5.00 per person up to a Maximum $20.00 per Family

Family Quilting Bee and Children's Tea at the Tate House Museum

The Tate House Museum invited you to be part of a long known social tradition of a community quilting bee. Whether you have ever sewn before or not, you and your family will have the opportunities to begin a patchwork of your own, contribute to a community quilt, learn about colonial social gatherings, and enjoy good company.

August 8th Interactive Puppet Show

Join us for an interactive puppet performance focused on Colonial Elite Education. This performance is a fun and interesting look at how Early American children learn about their world. Then join us for an in-depth tour of the chambers of the Tate boys and their itinerant schoolmaster.

Saturday October 10th Tate House Ramble to Strawbery Banke Museum

Experience a traditional New England country fair complete with demonstrations from craftspeople, heritage breed and farm animal exhibits, farm animal and livestock, demonstrations, special autumn activities in the Children's Garden, presentations on heirloom seeds and food preservation tips, fiber arts, demonstrations and exhibits on historic crafts and industries, coopering, harvest-themed crafts in the Family Discovery Center, garden tours and demonstrations

Saturdays October 17th and October 24th
Stroudwater Cemetery Tour and Bake Sale
12PM to 4PM

Visiting Stroudwater Burying Ground will be an experience not soon forgotten. To hear the joys and hardships of the residents straight from the Specters themselves will not only be educational but just a little SPOOKY too. So gather up the family for a day of ghostly fun and entertainment.

Saturday November 7th Tate House Fundraiser
Reception and Lecture by Colin Woodard

Celebrate the Maine Coast with the Tate House Museum. The museum will hold a fundraising party at the Portland Country Club, with award winning author Colin Woodard speaking about the past, present and future of the coast of Maine.

Annual Volunteer Appreciation Buffet

20% off the Gift Shop and lots of wonderful things to eat. A much deserved get together for Tate House Museum members, docents and volunteers. The perfect time to relax, compare notes and enjoy the comradery.

For information and reservations contact :
207-774-6177 or e-mail info@tatehouse.org

Tate House is a property of the National Society of The Colonial Dames of America in The State of Maine