

Looking for a different book?

Welcome on board Merlin for some amazing sailing adventures!

Merlin is a curious catamaran, home of a family with young kids and sailing from South Africa to Australia, via the Atlantic, the Caribbean Islands and the Pacific. Join us and discover the high seas, the underwater wonders, the islands delights and extraordinary sunsets.

Throw the lines and enjoy the dreams.

Ebook and paperback available on Amazon

About the author: Emmanuelle studied marine biology in France, and then went to do research on jellyfish in South Africa. There, her life took a new course. After having built a catamaran, she went sailing with her family, crossing the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans. Merlin's Voyage was inspired by this adventure. She is now living in Australia.

About the book: Merlin's voyage is a children book, mostly for children around 4 - 8 year-old. It is available on Amazon as an ebook or paperback, in French and in English. Colour photos taken during the trip are the main illustrations. At the end of the book, there is also a detailed index explaining nautical terminology and giving geographical information of the various stops.

Contact: Emmanuelle Buecher-Hall: +61 447 334 826 - merlinsvoyage@gmail.com