QUEENSLAND YOUTH SYMPHONY

conducted by John Curro opens the 2012 Concert Series with Richard Strauss's masterpiece, Don Juan. This exciting tone poem portrays the infamous Spanish philanderer, following him on his amorous adventures, to a masked ball and to his tragic end.

The inspiring Cello Concerto No.1 by French composer Saint-Saëns will be performed by QYS Principal Cellist Oliver Scott, showcasing one of Australia's most promising cello soloists.

A highlight of the concert is the mighty 12th Symphony "The Year of 1917" of Shostakovich; dark, powerful and full of drama.
