

Pianist in jazz solo

TALENTED pianist Julian Wade will showcase his musical skill at the Morning Music at the Old Museum concert on July 6.

The St Lucia resident will join five soloists for the popular midweek performance, featuring works for the trumpet, viola, tuba, cello and violin by composers Brahms, Vaughan Williams, Sarasate and more.

Mr Wade, who has completed a Bachelor of Music in classical piano at Queensland Conservatorium, will play on stage for the entire concert, including a solo performance of his own arrangement of the famous Shostakovich Jazz Suite No. 1.

"This is an exciting but tough program of great music," he said.

"I've chosen the jazz suite as my solo because I don't have to learn my own arrangement."

The concert will start at 10.30am at the Old Museum at Bowen Hills. Entry is $7. Group reservations can be made by phoning 3257 1191.

Services 32

te 15

36

in your Something inspired at newspapers

newspapers

newspapers

ews Queensland, Hills, and has a 6-month audit to St Lucia, Chapel Hill, Fig Brookfield, Upper wrie, Karana, Ashgrove, Melvin Grove, means getting from someone al.

edge and local RAMS you'll get knows

RAMS Home Loan Centre Brisbane North West

Paul Maraia 0421 186 326

Toowong 525 Milton Road

