Focus on Film Permission and Waiver

All film and still photography produced during this program is the property of Focus on Film, Ltd., including candid film and still photography of the filmmaking and production process. Focus on Film reserves the right to use any and all portions of this material for educational, promotional, and other non-commercial use, including use at Film Festivals, Local or International Broadcasts and Public Screenings, and on the Focus on Film website. By enrolling your student in this program, you agree that Focus on Film has the right to use the likeness or film of your child for these purposes, with no royalty or further permission required.

If you would like copies of material produced during the program, please bring a USB drive memory stick with sufficient memory available for the film or other material. Short films are generally about 150 MB.

During this program, students will be trained in the use of sophisticated cameras and electronic equipment. While reasonable wear and tear is to be expected, students shall be responsible for repair or replacement of any equipment damaged or lost by ill treatment or negligence.

Focus on Film instructors will provide instruction and will expect students to behave appropriately during the camp. Behavior on the part of a student that is detrimental to the program or is unsafe may, in the sole and exclusive judgement of Focus on Film staff and faculty, lead to expulsion. Under no circumstances shall an expelled student be entitled to any refund or partial refund of program fees.

By signing below, you acknowledge and agree to abide by the policies described above, and agree that Focus on Film employees and representatives shall not be responsible for any injury to your child during the program.
