To whom it may concern:

Last year, while seeking a new malpractice carrier, I was referred to Ms. Candace Cohen. Her prodigious efforts led her to finding a new company of quality that provided me with the lowest rates possible. I can honestly say that the solutions she allotted me were beyond my expectations. Not only did she provide me with more than reasonable coverage but she also afforded me other options for financing my plan.

Having accomplished that task, she been extremely helpful in monitoring my account to ascertain that I am current with my balance. I have never had such level of personal and ongoing attention. Candace's professionalism is to be commended and I can't recommend her highly enough. You will be very fortunate to have this remarkable woman with her level of professionalism and courtesy as your agent.
