9. Watch Auditions for Unnamed Broadway Musical: The Musical!

EFA Project Space, 323 West 39th Street, 2nd Floor

Begins Saturday, April 14 12:00 p.m.

Artist Kara Hearn is undertaking the ambitious task of producing her own Broadway-inspired musical in a five-week performance that will include auditions and rehearsals, culminating in a final show. Participants get the chance to star in a famous Broadway musical about an orphan that shall remain unnamed. Auditions begin Saturday and will be open to the public, so stop by for some American-Idol-style action.
