It's Beautiful!

The attached calendar (or emailed proof) entitled _____ is beautiful!! This is the final proof before going to press, and I hereby approve the entire project to proceed, either as-is or with corrections as noted below. I understand that color is "eye-pleasing" monitor color, and will only generally match a final set of color proofs (Matchprints or similar) supplied. Computer monitor colors are not accurate, nor are our interim mailed proofs.

While I understand that The 28 Page Agency has done their best to be accurate, I understand that it is my responsibility to check the addresses, phone numbers, facts & figures, spelling, grammar, tpestyle and graphic suitability, as well as any other artwork, stylistic or typographic issues. I have the legal permission to use the photos I have supplied for my project, and I agree to defend and hold harmless The 28 Page Agency should a dispute arise regarding those images.

Alterations may or may not be able to be made after this point and – if they are possible – significant additional charges will be incurred according to the time and materials costs involved. Thank you!

- PROOF IS CORRECT. Please immediately proceed with my calendar.
