Liturgical Reflection

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

It appears that God's people have disregarded the Lord's ways and preferred their own. Moses instructs them to renew their covenant commitment by returning to the Lord "with all your heart and all your soul." Love of the Lord and fidelity to the commandments are the essential elements of covenant relationship. These are not "too mysterious and remote for you." They are very near to you, easily accessible in your life's experience as they are "already in your mouths and in your hearts." All that is required is for each one to carry them out. The challenge for any disciple centers not so much on knowing what is right but on having the courage and strength to do what is right. Covenant love relationship demands that we not only "know" but also "do."

SECOND READING: Colossians 1:15-20

Colossians extols Christ as "the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation," through whom the universe was created. In Christ, all things hold together. In Christ, God becomes human, and through his life, Death, and Resurrection, reconciled all things that had gone astray and lost their connection with God. Since the fullness of God was pleased to dwell in Christ, he, though his self-emptying love for all, was able to reestablish God's peace and harmony that binds the universe together. We are still sorting out what reconciliation of all creation means for us as humans but also for all of God's created works.

GOSPEL: Luke 10:25-37

How Can I Be A Neighbor?

To understand the essence of the law summarized by an inquiring scholar of the law, Jesus proceeds to recount the parable of the Good Samaritan. For Jesus, loving the neighbor as yourself is the criteria for assessing one's love of God. Therefore it would have been important to know the exact definition of neighbor so that one could be faithful to the commandment. Jesus' parable brings his audience to a moment of insight and decision. The definition of neighbor as one who treats another with mercy, breaks down all artificial boundaries that divide us, and rests on the insight that we are to treat one another in the same fashion that God treats all creation. We are called to treat one another with mercy, no matter who the other is or what we think the other deserves. To love God is to treat one another with mercy, reconciliation, and love. What decision will you make?

ABOUT THIS SUNDAY

The Collect addresses the living of the Christian life, as it reminds us that God shows the light of truth "to those who go astray," praying "that they may return to the right path." The prayer goes on to ask that all who "are accounted Christian" may be given "the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ." The Prayer over the Offerings ask that those offering "may bring ever greater holiness" to those who consume them. It is only participating in the sacred actions that we can in any way hope that the "saving effects upon us may grow."

Parish Activities and Information

PARISH SUMMER GATHERING

Our parish council has planned a summer gathering for our parishioners. This will take place on August 14th, immediately following the 11:00am Mass, in the parish center. The parish will provide hot dogs, hamburgers, drinks, and ice cream. Parishioners who can do so are asked to bring a dish to pass. If you are going to attend, please place your name on the sign up sheet in the back of the Church. This is so we know how much food to order. In the past we held this picnic at different locations. This year our parish council thought it would make it easier on our parishioners if we held it immediately following the 11:00am Mass in the parish center. As the date gets closer, more details will follow.

NEW ITEMS HAVE ARRIVED

Please check out the stand on the side of the church for new Catholic materials which have just arrived.

ADULT SUMMER FILM SERIES

Our adult summer film series is held on Monday evenings, beginning at 7:00pm in the Parish Center. Refreshments and discussion follow the films. This week's movie is Risen – The epic Biblical story of the Resurrection and the weeks that followed, as seen through the eyes of an unbelieving Clavius (Joseph Fiennes), a high-ranking Roman Military Tribune. Clavius and his aide Lucius (Tom Felton) are instructed by Pontius Pilate to ensure Jesus' followers don't steal his body and claim resurrection. When the body goes missing within days, Clavius sets out on a mission to locate the missing body in order to disprove the rumors of a risen Messiah and prevent an uprising in Jerusalem. The remaining schedule is as follows: July 25th – G.K. Chesterton on St. Francis of Assisi, Aug 1st – Convinced, Aug 8th – Divine Mercy 101

FOOD PANTRY DONATIONS

July's Food Pantry items are: Pork and Beans and Canned Fruit. Place your donations in the box at the entrance of the church anytime throughout the month.

MISSION APPEAL WEEKEND

Please join us in welcoming Fr. Pierrot Kasemuana, a Missionhurst missionary who will be visiting our parish this weekend to present a mission appeal. Fr. Peirrot is from the foreign Province of Mongolia and will be sharing his life and dedication to the people he serves with us. Missionhurst serves in some of the most remote places in Mongolia, Indonesia, Africa, Asia and Latin America and its missionaries come prepared to stay, living among the people, sharing in their privation, and participating in the day-to-day effort needed to achieve life-long spiritual and material changes. Fr. Peirrot will be preaching at all the Masses and a second collection will be taken with proceeds going to Missionhurst.

That's The Way It Is!

I have been pastor of Saint Peter's for one year. For this week's installment I thought I should give an assessment and reflection of my first year. There are many new initiatives I have undertaken, but these initiatives could not have happened without the volunteers. I thank all the volunteers for their generosity.

Upon arrival, I met with two parishioners who are active in the parish. They proposed a new program called the Christlife series which they would run. I approved the program and told them to go ahead and run with it. Since that time they have worked hard and continue to do so. The Christlife series is a program geared towards the New Evangelization. It seeks to help people grow in their relationship to Christ. The program has a lot of potential in our parish. We did the pilot program in my first year. This year we will be opening up the program to the parish at large and is something we will do yearly.

Related to this program is the summer movie series. This series is part of the adult education outreach of our parish. This series is also run by the parishioners. Each Monday evening a different movie is shown. The movie has a religious theme. Refreshments are provided and a brief discussion follows the showing of the movie. This series is something that began as I arrived.

I began a Lessons and Carols during the Advent Season which I will continue this year. The Lessons and Carols are a beautiful way to prepare for Christmas. The service includes readings from Scripture that take us through the fall of humanity, the promise of the messiah, the incarnation of the messiah, and the great commission. The readings are followed by carols. It is a beautiful service that I intend to continue and have it grow.

During the Easter Triduum, I instituted Tenebrae service. This is a special service that is celebrated on Good Friday after the sun sets. It is a journey from light into darkness. After each reading, candles are extinguished. The lights in the Church are gradually extinguished as the candles are extinguished. After the last reading, the Church is in darkness. I process out with the lit Paschal Candle, slamming a door to symbolize Jesus decent into the grave. After a period of reflection, I process back in with the lit Paschal Candle. The Prologue of John's Gospel is read as the lights are turned on in the Church. I intend to continue this service and have it grow.

I have worked to expand and develop the role of the parish council. I am continuing to work with the council on different projects and ideas for the parish. We have been working in a parish wide survey that will be handed out in the fall to the parish at large. We will then analyze the results. The survey is to gage how well our parish is meeting the needs of the people and to find out needs that exist that we may not be aware of. Once the survey is complete, we will work to develop programs to meet the needs presented in the survey. A future project I would also like to work on with the council is outreach to the fallen away Catholics or non-practicing Catholics in our parish.

I received many complaints about the former sound system. People could not hear. In response I replaced the old sound system with a new sound system from Sides Music in Williamsport. I have heard positive feedback regarding the new sound system. I am currently working with Sides on getting special hearing aids. People who are hard of hearing can use these individually.

In August I will send out a simple financial statement. In the mean time, I am happy to report that our parish is fiscally healthy. This is due to smart money management by our business manager and finance council. Most importantly it is due to your generosity. Thank you for being so generous to your parish. If you continue your giving at last year's level, we will continue to be fiscally healthy. Thank you for your generosity!

Last but not least, we had a large RCIA class this year. We baptized and or accepted a total of 9 people into the Catholic Faith and our parish at the Easter Vigil. What is even better is that I see all of the converts at Mass each week. The names of the converts were published in the Easter bulletin, but I will list them again: Timothy Christman, Paula Davis, Artie Holdren, JoAnn Osgood, Ryan Osgood, Shelby Osgood, Timothy Trescott and Caitlin Tameris. Avery Trescott is the daughter of Tim and Sheena and was baptized as an infant. We are very happy to have these people as part of our parish and wish them the best.

I feel it has been a great year. I look forward to my second year here at the Church of Saint Peter's.

That's the way it is!

SCIENCE AND ETHICS

"I feel the duty to affirm yet again that not all that is scientifically possible is also ethically licit. Technology, when it reduces the human being to an object of experimentation, results in abandoning the weak subject to the arbitration of the stronger. To blindly entrust oneself to technology as the only guarantee of progress, without offering at the same time an ethical code that penetrates its roots in that same reality under study and development, would be equal to doing violence to human nature with devastating consequences for all. Together with the progress of our capacity to dominate nature, scientists must also contribute to help understand the depth of our responsibility for man and for nature entrusted to him"

News From the Vatican

BEING CHRISTIAN IS A MISSION

"What is the spirit with which the disciple of Jesus will carry out this mission?" Pope Francis asked. "First of all: the Christian must be aware of the difficult and sometimes hostile reality that awaits him; Jesus minces no words on that; in fact, Jesus says, 'I am sending you like lambs among wolves.' Hostility is always at the beginning of the persecution of Christians, because Jesus knows that the mission is opposed by the work of the Evil One. Thus the worker of the Gospel will strive to be free from human influences of every kind: carrying neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes – as recommended by Jesus – relying solely on the power of the Cross of Christ. This means giving up all personal reason to boast, putting off every temptation, careerism, or hunger for power: it means being humble instruments of the salvation worked by Jesus' own sacrifice. When we do this our heart is filled with joy. This expression makes me think about how much the Church rejoices when her children receive the Good News by way of the dedication of so many men and women who daily proclaim the Gospel: priests, nuns, consecrated persons, missionary men and women – and I wonder – how many of you hear the invitation –hear and heed the Lord's call to follow him? Be not afraid! Be brave and bring to others this torch of apostolic zeal that has been left by so many exemplary disciples."

Please patronize our sponsors and thank them for their support. Their advertising helps to make our bulletin possible.
