SUSTAINABLE LOUDOUN’S ANNUAL FORUM
Uranium Mining in Virginia: Should We End the Moratorium?

George Washington University - Virginia Campus
Friday, November 11, 2011 – Come Early!! - Doors Open at 6PM – Program Begins at 7PM

Speakers & Topics

Tony Noerpel - Sustainable Loudoun: Long-term viability of nuclear energy - supply, safety, complexity, waste and cost.
Rob Marmet - Piedmont Environmental Council: Legal aspects of Virginia’s moratorium & impact of surface mining.
Linda Pentz Gunter - Beyond Nuclear: Uranium mining: health and environmental impacts.
Will Stewart - Sustainable Loudoun: Alternatives to nuclear, and cost comparisons.

Refreshments by Harris Teeter!

www.lcss.org

George Washington University – Virginia Campus
20101 Academic Way, Ashburn, Virginia