Meet our clients. See our results.

Taking care of our clients is our first and only priority. From solo practice attorneys to medium sized law firms, LSS continues to grow its list of clients in the greater Minneapolis/St. Paul area. Here's what some of our clients are saying:

Andrew Silverstein

Andrew M. Silverstein Law Office, L.L.C.

"As a family law solo practitioner, I have worked with Legal Support Systems (LSS) since 2003. I am continuously amazed at the accuracy, responsiveness, high attention to detail and overall excellent customer service which LSS provides. The rates for LSS services are reasonable. Working with LSS has been a great benefit to my practice. My partnership with LSS allows me to focus my time and attention to client matters and to the development of my family law practice."

Robert L. Weiner

Robert L. Weiner & Associates

"I have been a well-satisfied client of Legal Support Systems for over 10 years. I first contacted LSS after a staff change left me with no one who knew how to run the billing software that I had been using for my family law practice. It simply wasn't cost effective to spend the time to do the billing myself or to train in another employee whose longevity with the firm would always be an uncertainty."

"The change to LSS and Bonnie has brought ease and predictability to a process that had always been a source of frustration and wasted time. Bonnie is both exceptionally professional and a pleasure to work with. My recommendation of her services is unequivocal and of the highest order."

Ed Kautzer

Ruvelson & Kautzer, Chartered

"We've been with Legal Support Systems since 1985. Legal Support Systems consistently gets our billings to us in a timely manner which helps our accounts receivable. In addition, they produce alpha lists, reports on billable hours, etc. For a small office, it pays for us as our staff is busy enough the way it is and, it works out economically when our staff is busy with other matters. Legal Support Systems puts our billing from a low priority for us to a high priority for them."

Steven R. Kufus

Steven R. Kufus, P.A.

"For almost 20 years I have utilized the services of Legal Support Systems, Inc., for my billing and financial reports needs. Bonnie and her staff have been exceedingly prompt and efficient. The work is always accurate and if I have a special need, it is always addressed in a manner that exceeds my expectations. I can recommend Legal Support Systems, Inc., without hesitation."

Beth E. Bertelson

Bertelson Law Offices, P.A.

"In the many years we have been a client of Legal Support Systems, we have relied on their speed, accuracy and flexibility to help us get our billing out in a timely manner. We highly recommend their services."
