The October Program

“The Business of Civil War in the North”

By

Dr. Mark R. Wilson

The Union armies that won the Civil War in the field depended on a massive economic mobilization on the home front. In four years of fighting, Union soldiers consumed a billion rounds of small arms ammunition, 100 million pounds of coffee, 10 million pairs of trousers, and a million horses and mules. Historians of the conflict often refer to the North’s tremendous advantages in economic resources. Few, however, have done much to describe the economics and politics of the North’s giant military procurement project. This presentation will introduce us to the latest research on this important but neglected dimension of Civil War history. Dr. Wilson will explore three major struggles over the North’s war economy – political control, how goods were obtained, and corruption and profiteering.

Dr. Mark Wilson is Associate Professor of History at the University of North Carolina – Charlotte. He is author of the book, “The Business of Civil War” (2006). Dr. Wilson holds an A.B. in History and Literature from Harvard, and a Ph.D. in History, with distinction, from the University of Chicago.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

As I announced at our kickoff program, we plan to offer an annual $500 scholarship to a high school senior starting this academic year. Among our criteria: it will be awarded to a senior who has plans to attend college and has been accepted at either a 2 or 4 year program; has financial need; has submitted an essay on Civil War history (any aspect including social, economic, military, a particular battle or local SC effect, etc.) We had our first fundraising at our last program and are well on our way, but we need your donation. Please consider sending your check directly to our Treasurer, Jeff Rugg (484 B.B Sams Drive, Dатаw Island, SC 29920) or bring it to our Oct. 8, 2014 program. All donations are tax deductible.

Thanks to all of you who re-enlisted as members and volunteered to make our dinners and programs the best we can. We still need more help, with set up, serving and cleanup after our dinners and a few willing volunteers to serve on our Program Committee. With more hands, the jobs will be easy.

We have a great group of officers and committee members this year and I look forward to working with them. If you wish to volunteer or have any questions feel free to contact me at jvrjersey@gmail.com

Respectfully, your obedient servant,
Joe Roney
President
