

ONTARIO SPEED SKATING

Announcing the 2019 Nagano Skate Short Track Summer Camp! August 12-17, 2019

The Ontario Speed Skating Association in partnership with Nagano Skate is pleased, once again, to announce the Nagano Skate Short Track Summer Camp will return to Ontario! This year, the camp will be held in Kitchener Waterloo, Ontario for speed skaters between the ages of 8-22.

This full-day camp for speed skaters includes two ice sessions per day, dryland training, classroom sessions and a fully sanctioned competition for camp participants on August 17, 2019.

The camp will feature the High Performance coaching team from Nagano Skate:

Eric Bédard – four-time Olympic medalist. OSSA's High Performance Director from 2016-2018. Currently the Head Coach of the Canadian Men's Short Track National Team.

François Drolet - Gold Medalist 1998, International Equipment Specialist.

Charle Cournoyer – 2 time Olympic medalist and World Cup vice-champion.

William Preudhomme – Former National Team Member and pride of Toronto, ON.

Annie Sarrat – Accredited National Coach.

With special guest:

Samuel Girard – 2018 1000m Olympic Champion!

Registered skaters will be divided into 4 groups according to their speed skating ability.

Please be advised that this is a high performance camp for skaters between the ages of 8-22, who have at least one season of racing experience. This is not a "learn to speed skate" camp.

Cost: $434.00. A deposit of $200.00 is due immediately upon confirmation of registration.

The balance ($234.00) is due June 30, 2019.

Payment can be sent via E Money Transfer to executivedirector@ontariospeedskating.ca.

Password: OSSA2019. Cheque can be mailed to 100 St. Charles St. E, Maryhill, ON N0B 2B0.

Camp Location: RIM Park, Lion's Arena. 2001 University Ave East, Waterloo ON, N2K 4K4.
