

Ellen J. Montz
emontz@fas.harvard.edu
1550 7th Street NW Apt 829
Washington, DC 20001
512-296-5049

Education

2018 PhD (Expected)	Health Policy (Economics Track) Committee: Mike Chernew, Tom McGuire, Kathy Swartz, and Tim Layton	Harvard University
2009 MPAff	Domestic and Economic Policy	University of Texas
2005 BA	Molecular Biology and Political Science	Rice University

Professional Experience

Jan 2017--	Fellow	The Century Foundation
2011-2014	Senior Policy Advisor	Domestic Policy Council, The White House
2010-2011	Professional Staff	Senate Finance Committee, U.S. Senate
2009-2010	Policy Analyst	Department of Health Care Reform, HHS
2007-2009	Research Assistant	LBJ School of Public Affairs, Univ. Texas

Grants and Fellowships

2017-2018 Dissertation Completion Fellowship	Harvard University
2013-2017 R32 National Research Service Award	Agency for Health Care Research and Quality

Peer-Reviewed Publications

Montz EJ, Layton TJ, Busch A, Ellis RE, Rose S, and McGuire T. Risk-adjustment simulation: plans may have incentives to distort mental health and substance use coverage. Health Affairs 2016; 35(6) 22-28

Layton, TJ, Montz EJ, and Shepard M. In Preparation. "Health Plan Payment in U.S. Marketplace: Regulated Competition with a Weak Mandate." Book Chapter. Expected 2017

Working Papers

Montz EJ. Can subsidizing market entry promote better market outcomes? Consumer Operated and Oriented Plan Collapse and Marketplace Consequences (Job Market Paper). 2017

Montz EJ. Plan pricing and cost-sharing setting behavior in Marketplaces. 2017

Montz EJ, Layton TJ, Ericson K, Sacarny A. Consumer Price Sensitivity, Turnover, and Inertia in the ACA's Marketplaces. 2018

Teaching Experience

2017	Economics of Health Care Policy (Teaching Fellow for Joe Newhouse)	Harvard Kennedy School
2016	Economics of Health Care Policy (Teaching Fellow for Joe Newhouse)	Harvard Kennedy School
2015	Empirical and Mathematical Reasoning The Business and Politics of Health (Teaching Fellow for David Cutler)	Harvard College
2007-2009	Introductory to Cell Biology (Teaching Assistant)	University of Texas at Austin

Invited Presentations

2017	Consumer Price Sensitivity, Turnover, and Inertia in the ACA's Marketplaces Southern Economic Association, Tampa, FL
2016	Risk-adjustment simulation: plans may have incentives to distort mental health and substance use coverage Health Affairs Briefing, Washington, DC

Published Policy Work

2017	See The Century Foundation Experts Page: https://tcf.org/experts/ellen-montz/
2016-	See Health Affairs Blog Postings: http://healthaffairs.org/blog/author/montz/