

The musicians will be lining up around "The Green Room", waiting to appear on the Pickens Opera House Stage (building near Hull's Store) during the Pickens, West Virginia Maple Syrup Festival March 18 and 19.

If the sun is shiny and warm, like it is today, we may get pickers to rotate to our outdoor stages in town!

SATURDAY

Phil McAvoy and friends will be our backbone setting the stage and leading the sound of all our favorite tunes and some loving memory to all who have passed this way before with songs such as

“Go Rest High on that Mountain” (in honor of Leslie Betler White)

“Too Old to Die Young”, “Long Black Veil”, and “Bear Tracks” (in honor of Big John Kelley)

The following will also perform during our festival in our one of a kind Opera House throughout the day.

Mike Belotte

Bill Talbott

Vernon Burky

The Helvetia Star Band

Ken Sheller

Martha Cordray & the Possum Hollar Band

Gary Bonnett

Mike Richter (one of our own and the owner & founder of Richter's Maple Syrup House) approx 4pm

Also new this year the documentary of the Pickens Leper will show at 11am

SUNDAY

June Lewis Coffman & Lexi Coffman 10am

Mike Belotte

Vernon Burky

JC Wallace (Nephew of The Currence Brothers)

Alex Chandler

The Helvetia Star Band

Phil McAvoy

*Changes are subject to change. There may be additional performers added later.