

Intimate Partner Abuse of Men Workshop

When : 9.00 am – 4.30 pm Wednesday 16 June 2010

Where : Gloucester Park
Nelson Crescent
East Perth (off street parking available)

The workshop is aimed at service providers plus anyone who works with victims and perpetrators of family and domestic violence and will consider the implications of the research for your service or work.

Executive Summary and Presentations

Participants will be provided with a copy of the executive summary plus the PowerPoint presentations that are to be used at the workshop.

You will also be given a statement that is aimed at clarifying MAN's position on family and domestic violence plus provides the context in which the study of intimate partner abuse of men was undertaken.

The report is available to be downloaded from:

Afternoon Workshop

The workshop will be from 12.50pm to 4.30pm with afternoon tea from 2.30 pm to 3.00pm.

The workshop groups should be drawn from different agencies and will address several questions.

- 12.50pm Noel Giblett will outline the workshop program
- 1.00pm Introductions
- 1.10pm What are the implications of the research for me and my practice?
- 1.30pm What is required to better engage, support and assist male victims?
- There will not be sufficient time to address all of the specific questions below, nor will participants have expertise in all areas. It is therefore expected that only some of these issues will be discussed in the time that is available.
- What are the implications for my agency or service?
 - What are we currently doing and how could we do it better?
 - What changes, if any, should be made to:
 - Current generic men's services?
 - Current male perpetrator services?
 - Current female victim's services?
 - Other services?
 - How can we engage male victims in services?
- 2.15pm Feedback
- 2.30pm Afternoon tea
- 3.00pm What are the implications for the various sectors that may encounter a male victim, i.e. domestic violence, magistrates, family law, counselling, police, hospital emergency departments, doctors, etc?
- 3.30pm What are the implications for the community and the media?
- 4.00pm Feedback
- 4.15pm Where do we go from here? Gary Bryant, Executive Officer, Men's Advisory Network
- 4.20pm Summing up by Noel Giblett.
- 4.30pm Close
