

Crime Prevention Through Community Engagement (CPTCE) Seminar

November 19-21, 2019
Harris County Sheriff's Office
Houston, Texas

Crime Prevention Through Community Engagement (CPTCE) is a merger of contemporary crime prevention and community policing strategies designed to encourage and facilitate community outreach programs and to help reinforce an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect between law enforcement and the local community.

The American Crime Prevention Institute (ACPI), together with the Harris County Sheriff's Office, is co-sponsoring an insightful new crime prevention program entitled, Crime Prevention Through Community Engagement (CPTCE) Seminar. This timely three-day seminar is designed to enhance and energize law enforcement agencies' community outreach and engagement efforts.

As developed by ACPI, the definition of Crime Prevention Through Community Engagement (CPTCE) is "the strategic inclusion, involvement, and engagement of grass root community members in the facilitation and support of crime prevention and related community policing efforts.
