

ANASTASIS

1 Peter 1:3

CODE OF CONDUCT

Company Dancers must:

1. have a current, active relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ (born again)
2. have a heart for worship
3. have a desire to serve the body of Christ and to minister and share the gospel with the unsaved
4. have a submissive and teachable spirit to Anastasis Ballet Company Directors and Leaders
5. have a commitment to and cooperation with other company members, striving to work together in unity and harmony and praying for one another
6. dress appropriately for rehearsals, to and from performances and while performing. Apparel must be modest and in proper taste.
7. commit to attend rehearsals regularly and in a timely manner
8. not use class time to "chat" or "visit" with other company members - Cell phones must be turned off during all rehearsals & programs
9. follow the "proper process" (Matthew 18:15-17) towards reconciliation if you have an offense with the director or other company members
10. call the director for permission at least 24 hours in advance if you must miss a rehearsal
11. attend all performances, unless approved by the director
12. not gossip or speak poorly of the ministry, director or any other company member
13. always uphold your character as you are an ambassador for Jesus Christ
14. not engage in ungodly/unbiblical activities of any kind
15. uphold the integrity of the ministry at all times
16. Understanding that Anastasis has intent to start a ballet school, I will seek approval from the Artistic Director before undertaking any positions that might be a conflict of interest

I agree to uphold the above code of conduct. I understand that I am not expected to be perfect, but am expected to do what is right and pleasing to God. I understand that failing to comply with this Cod of conduct will result first, in a verbal warning; second, with a written warning informing me and my parents (if a minor) of unacceptable behavior; and third, with suspension from Anastasis Ballet Company. I commit to attend all rehearsals and ministry opportunities for the 2017-2018 season (9/17 - 8/18), unless otherwise approved by the director.
