Job Search Programme

The Job Search Ignition Programme is for individuals who are proactively looking for a new job. It is for those who are serious about getting a job but not just any job – the job they want.

On this programme you will work one-on-one with a highly experienced career guide who will spend time getting to know you, the type of job that is right for you and how together, you will go about getting it.

Your Programme will be tailored towards your needs but is likely to include the following elements:

- Understanding who you are, what you can do
- Knowing what you have to offer and what you really want
- Highlighting your key strengths, skills and experience to date
- Evaluating your options and where to focus your energy
- Creating an action plan to work the job market in your favour
- Building your networking to open up opportunities and move you forwards
- Interview preparation and confidence
- CV review and feedback
