

Advanced Start-Up & Maintenance for Salt Water Pools

How do salt water pools differ from fresh water pools?

Salt water pools add several new variables with significant implications:

1. The introduction of an electrochemical device known as a saltwater chlorine generator (SWG) to produce chlorine within the recirculation system of the pool.
2. The introduction of ~3200 ppm of salt to the general body of pool water.

