St. Sophia Jr. Olympics Eligibility Requirements and Other Important Information:

Please carefully read the eligibility requirements and other important information listed below:

- STEWARDSHIP: Every participant must be current stewards of their parish.
- REGISTERED: You must be enrolled (parents must have completed & submitted completed registration packets) for both Youth Ministry and Sunday Church School.
- INVOLVEMENT: You must be actively and regularly involved with Youth Ministry activities and Sunday Church School in order to participate in Jr. Olympics. This will be verified by Church School attendance records.
- REGISTRATION FEE: $10 Registration fee must be submitted with each participant's registration packet.
- EXPECTATION: Each participant is required to commit to play if you sign up for a sport and attend practices. The expectation is that you will be part of the team on the day of the event. Your teammates depend on you and if you do not attend practices and the day of event; we may have to forfeit due to not meeting minimum team requirements; if you have a conflict please talk to Father Andrew immediately in order to determine a solution.
- PRIORITY: Our goal is to match each individual with his or her preferred choice. However, due to the demand of the sport's schedule and space available; those who register with COMPLETED registration packets early will receive priority. It is in your best interest to submit your registration as soon as possible.
- ATTEND PRACTICES: It is expected that each participant to attend all practices as scheduled; if you have a conflict please talk to Father Andrew in order to determine a solution. Practices will begin in February. Once coaches are determined, teams have been formed and facilities reserved we will contact you with the practice schedules.
- PARTICIPATION: St. Sophia's participation in each sport will depend on whether we have enough participants or the Metropolis itself may change events or age groups. When you sign up for a sport, you will be notified of all changes as soon as we are aware of them.
- ATTEND OPENING CEREMONIES: Opening Ceremonies Saturday Morning of the event is an important part of the Jr. Olympics experience and we require that all of our athletes and coaches to be in attendance. We will meet under the St. Sophia banner on the track at 7:30 am on Saturday, May 26th.
- DUE DATE: All completed registration packets are due on or before February 24, 2019 to Father Andrew. There are no exceptions.

Metropolis of Chicago Jr. Olympics Code of Conduct/Mission Statement:

"...if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not win the prize unless he competes according to the rules...Remember therefore Jesus Christ, risen from the dead..." (2Timothy 2:5-8)

These words of St. Paul as an athlete for Christ, serve as the "code" and the "mission" of the Metropolis of Chicago Jr. Olympics. All participants, coaches, advisors, organizers, parish leaders, parents and spectators are expected to keep high the ideals of these games, which namely are:

- To OBEY the rules of play
- To ADHERE to the age requirements
- To RESPECT the event supervisors and officials
- To UNDERSTAND that all participants must be stewards of their parish and regularly involved in the parish's educational and youth programs
- To PROMOTE Christian athletic fellowship
- To MAINTAIN a demeanor that is typical of a faithful, believing, God-loving Orthodox Christian
- To RESPECT ALL PEOPLE involved in the games and to treat those people as one would the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.
