PREFACE

It all started way back in the days of high school through to the college, where my unique passion and zeal for decency, living a godly life or piety which is acceptable before God and humanity, was paramount. Graced and blessed with the special innate and the ability to put thoughts together, catchy to the eye and pleasing the ears of its readers.

My first article was published in the high school during the end of year 2005 academic magazine which I entitled, the body vibration, the idea of relationship, love and marriage in God's way. It raised lots of concern and gained fame on campus as the students and the teachers marveled at how a business accounting student could write such a wonderful article.

My urge and zeal enabled me to gather vibrant individuals on campus whilst in the college, people with like minds, having the passion for the things of God, so as to come together as a formidable force to propagate the gospel of Christ Jesus so as to pray and depopulate hell, only to populate heaven, the formation of this association also known as "campus end time reformers association" gave birth to the idea of writing this book as "God's end time reformers' revolution.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Justice-Jackie Mensah is a pastor and a minister called by God into his end time prophetic prayer and preaching ministry, founder and president of formerly known End Time Reformers Association but now International Ministers Association (IMA), an incorporation of preachers, gospel musicians and instrumentalists all over the world with the main focus on young ministers and their preparation for the end time ministry of Jesus Christ. It is a non denomination and an inter-denominational association of individuals from various churches.

Pastor Justice as popularly called, is an author as a natural writer on any topic that deems fit for contemporary discussion, a worshipper and a song writer, travels across the country for ministrations, reaching out and touching lives with the gift of God through his gift of prophetic prayer and preaching ministry and by the word of knowledge.

Pastor Justice is known for his unadulterated messages, speaking in the language of the Holy Spirit and declaring the oracles of God, displaying his understanding in the mysteries and revelations of the Holy Scriptures.

Born and raised at the backside of the desert where the glory of God is unlimited, West Africa; Accra-Ghana, where he attained his college education in Marketing and also received his certification and degree in church administration from Fire Int'l Bible School in Massachusetts, in the united states of America.

He is currently a medical student studying radiology in Hostos Community College, residing in the Bronx of New York City. A dynamic and vibrant young minister of God with a special zeal for God and passion for the things of God, whose heart beat, is for a holy living, the issues of sanctification and consecration when dealing with the issues of sin. He has a special and unique understanding of God's kind of holiness and righteousness as the main pivot and fulcrum of his preaching sermons.

DEDICATION

The birth of this informational work piece is as a result of the formation of campus end time reformers; this was way back in college of HO POLYTECHNIC, Ghana, West Africa. The associations of vibrant individuals who are heavenly minded and have the kingdom business at heart on Campus, ladies and gentlemen who have devoted their lives, time and resources for the work of God, our first time of reformation started when we embarked on 30 days fasting and prayer for the preparation of the gospel in us and for us. It was during this time that I realized that, the world was not yet ready to receive us based on the miracles that broke out on campus, the fire-like revival that hit the entire student body, professors and lecturers that belonged to secret cults on campus, rose up against us because of the intensity of our intercessional prayers for the land. It was such an interesting ecstasy to see the manner in which the devil and his agents were made a public spectacular of.

I affectionately will like to dedicate this book to all the end time reformers on campus, who selflessly decided to go all out with me in my quest for the deliverance and outbreak of freedom for the entire body of Christ on campus and for the world at large, not to mention but; Ebenezer Yaw Ansah, Frank Nana Yaw Sedor, Bright makafui, Richard Delali Lumor, Charlotte Serwaa Siaw, Charles Okoro, Ernestine Adiwokor, Walter Edem, Henry Lartey and all others. My greatest appreciation goes to one that I call a true brother in the lord, Brother Charles Broni Selasie Petterson who was my predecessor, who handed his office of prayer president to me on campus with which I had the opportunity to voice out and stood in the right place to form this association with the help of the office of a prayer president.

Because of their massive corporations in the things of God, I stood blessed and felt not left out of God's end time reformers' revolution, I also rejoice with you all even as we continue to seek God's end time revolution together as end time reformers in his vine yard.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

And now may I say; had it not been the lord who was on my side, I would have been overwhelmed by the troubled waters and this is why my first and foremost gratitude and thanks goes to the lord God almighty who in his infinite mercy and grace, have blessed me and brought me this far in my walk with him.

I will also wish to express my deepest appreciation to my mother, the late Miss. Rejoice Esinu Kpasah for her unfailing love for me, being on my side at all times, having the best of my interests at heart. The only person who truly understands me in all my daily dealings, who will go all out even if it means compromising to see the realization of my dreams. May her soul rest in perfect peace, even in the bosom of her creator, now and forever more, Amen.

I will also wish to thank my father Mr. Foster Komla Mensah for his financial and moral support for me throughout my college all these whiles. My aunt; Madam Patience Adzimahe, one that we all refer to as sister Epeh for her efforts in my spiritual up bringing who catered for me, taught me and brought me up as a mother would do to a son. In the absence of my mother, she is the one I know as my mother because she was the one that raised me right from the age of 6 after I left my mother.

I will not leave out one that places a great deal of value and vote of confidence in me as well as for her love and emotional support unceasingly, Miss Martha Nkansah.

I will also like to extend my gratitude to my spiritual father, Prophet Prince William Larbi of Dominion Light chapel international, Ghana.

I will also like to extend my deepest regards to my spiritual mother Apostle Billie Johnnican of Fire Int'l Ministry for their spiritual supports in every possible way even in the certification of my pastoral certificate.

In my own very special way, I will like to thank those that see me as a friend, they are very humble, loving and respectful, always ready with their offices doors opened to listen to me, Mr. Douglas Giordano, my general manager and Mr. Bob Mcsweeney, Assistant Banquet Director, in Chelsea piers (pier 60 and the light house) for extending their hands of friendship towards me and also for their words of friendly advices, encouragements and votes of confidence in me throughout the course of this work piece, I will also like to thank Rev. John K. Boafo of New Directions Bible Temple, Bronx, New York and all members of New Directions Bible Temple.

Finally, I will extend my thanks and appreciation to all my friends, family and loved one's for all your participation, prayers and supports in making me realize the dream of this course.

FOREWORD

I have not known Justice Jackie Mensah for a very long time but there are certain things that I know about him for sure. He is a kind and caring man, always smiling and offering a genuinely friendly greeting. His deep spirituality is evident from the first time you meet him. He shows true compassion and empathy for others while not letting it take away from his duties and responsibilities, all of which he performs with an utmost diligence.

I feel that I am a luckier person for being able to call justice my friend.

Bob McSweeney

REVOLUTION

(THE CALL TO REFORMATION)

INTRODUCTION:

“Reformers are people who seek to change society or one of its institutions in order to help it recover or realize its original ideals. Reformers differ from revolutionaries in wanting to repair rather than destroy the existing social order. Alternating periods of reformation and the increasing need for it have characterized all lasting institutions of government and religion” (Encarta encyclopedia standard, 2004).

The complete life of every reformer is to usher a special kind of revival that the Greeks call “Anathalo” or “Anazao” which means, to flourish, to make new again, to regain life or to live again.

Hence, the hall mark for revival is to introduce God’s kind of “fire” which again the Greeks call “Pur” which indicates the form of judgment that consumes anything which is inconsistent with that of God. Nevertheless, the reformer in his quest for revival is to consume every form of old and compromising fashion so as to usher and establish God’s way of doing things which in actual fact is the heart beat of God.

Every reformer should be a think tanker. They should be able to have the ability to grasp and assimilate effectively and efficiently the “Rhema” which is the spoken word of God and the interpretation of the “logos” which is the written word in order to precipitate heavenly reactions on earth by making clearer the intents of God understandable to the human race.

God’s end time reformers, are to carry out their task and assignment with urgency because the days are so evil, the times are so cruel, the hours are so wicked and the seconds are so critical that, every form of assignment given is regarded as a critical assignment that needs to be completed within a particular specified time allocated for it with the required resources.

In this end time revolution, God is gathering together heavenly minded souls who are not in tune with any form of adulterated and diluted gospel but those that uphold aggressiveness and traveling to stop the forces of darkness and because of this, they are being recruited into God's end time reformation. They are being recruited to seek and fight the battle for change; for reformation.

The destruction and depopulating of hell so as to populate heaven at an increasingly, maximum rate, always calls out for a serious struggle and a battle between the custodians of the forces of both darkness and those of light. During the process of the battle, it is all about the reason for interference into one's state of affairs as to why should light interfere into the affairs of darkness and vice versa.

As God's end time reformer, you simply cannot fight a battle and win that battle until you are well informed and educated enough about the contents of the battle. Although you can copy and imitate a man's methods of warfare, you can never achieve the same result with the copied and imitated method as the original inventor of that method would have achieved. This is why you need to have your own method to approaching warfare and this is only possible if you truly understand the dynamics of the warfare and battles within which you find yourself.

The classifications of demonic and celestial battles are in assorted forms. You just cannot look at the battle from only one source or angle of direction but you need the full concentration on all the dimensions of the battle. So that no matter where it will spring up from, you still will identify the enemy and bring him down. Nevertheless, the battle you will encounter from the atmosphere will not be the same as the battle you will encounter coming from the sea and likewise different from that of the land or in the mountains but upon all these, what matters is that you are well educated enough to have an upper hand over every battle and warfare with the enemy.

The principalities, the powers, the rulers of darkness of this world and wickedness in higher places only tell us about the dimensions of the warfare that we encounter or engage ourselves in and this is to give us the glimpse and clues to the levels of the warfare.

In these days of the end time revolution, happy fighters are no more needed simply because, these are the ones that fight because there is a battle to be fought. They go about looking for who to make trouble with, bringing chaos and confusion coupled with division into churches. With the goal-oriented fighters, they fight to achieve or attain results at the end of every battle because their cry is that, “for the battle of every warrior is with a confused noise, and a garment rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire (Isaiah 9:5). God is looking for goal-oriented fighters. God is calling for end time reformers.
