FR. NICK'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

In a matter of a few weeks we will pause as we gather around the table with family and friends reflecting just how grateful we are for God's many blessings. Giving thanks opens the horizons of our mind and heart to see God's love all around us.

St. Mark the Hermit once said:

"Here my son and daughter is how we can give thanks and learn gratitude... You must make a list in your memory and in your prayer of all the blessings given to you by God, the lover of mankind for the salvation of your soul. You must never forget them. Do not permit negligence to cover these memories with the veil of forgetfulness so that you loose all remembrance of the great and numerous graces you have received. If that were to happen you would spend the rest of your life in ingratitude and loose sight of not only God's love for you but of your neighbor."

We must remember to be grateful and thankful to God, yes, but also towards one another, for God most certainly resides there too. We must learn to see God in everyone and everything, and so, in giving thanks to a brother or sister in God, we give thanks unto Him because God dwells in all of us. Let's celebrate this Thanks-Giving Day by thanking God for having made us for a destiny of eternal happiness, let us thank Him for the Gift of faith which gives meaning and direction to our lives, let us thank Him too, for the countless graces with which he daily surrounds us as he guides us gently past dangers and towards Him.

May this Thanksgiving Day then, fill our hearts with gratitude for all the blessings that fill our lives. What better way is there, than to live each hour and each day in a spirit of thankfulness and gratitude. Not only to express our thanks with lips alone, but to live our thanks with our lives

With love in the Lord,

Fr. Nick

ST. NECTARIOS- NOVEMBER 9

St. Nectarios was born in Selyvria of

Thrace on October

1, 1846. In 1876,

after studying in school, he became a monk and a year

later he was ordained deacon, receiving the name of Nectarios.

Patriarch Sophronius

ordained him priest

on March 23, 1886 in the Cathedral of St.

Sabbas, and in August of the same year, in the Church of St. Nicholas in Cairo, he was made an Archimandrite.

On January 15, 1889 Nectarios was consecrated Metropolitan of the Pentapolis in eastern Libya.

Nectarios' swift ascent through the degrees of ecclesiastical office did not affect his modesty and childlike innocence, but it aroused the envy of lesser men. Since the people loved Nectarios, the Patriarch was troubled by the slanders. On May 3, 1890, Sophronius relieved Metropolitan Nectarios of his duties; in July of the same year, he commanded Nectarios to leave Egypt.

Without seeking to avenge or even to defend himself, Nectarios left for Athens, where he found accusations of immorality had arrived before him.

Because of this, he was unable to find a position worthy of a bishop. In 1894, he was appointed dean of the Rizarios Ecclesiastical School in Athens. And in 1904 he began building the convent of the Holy Trinity on the island of Aegina while dean of the Rizarios School. Later in life he relocated to Aegina, where he spent the last years of his life. He became the protector of all Aegina, through his prayers delivering the island from drought, healing the sick, and casting out demons. An innumerable multitude of miracles have been witnessed after his repose in 1920 through his holy relics, which for many years remained incorrupt. There is hardly a malady that has not been cured through his prayers; but St. Nectarios is especially renowned for his healings of cancer for sufferers in all parts of the world.

Becoming an altar server

here at St. Demetrios is open to the boys of our parish, 13 and older, who wish to serve alongside our clergy and learn more about their Orthodox faith. Serving in the altar is a true honor, and our boys make wonderful friends in the process.

Throughout the year the altar servers meet to practice and go over what their responsibilities are for each Sunday as well as for special services. If your son is interested in learning what it takes to serve the church and assist the clergy do not hesitate to reach out to either Fr. Vinnie or Chris Kourlos.

For more information please contact Fr. Vinnie at frvincent@stdemetriosweston.org or Chris Kourlos at kourkat1@gmail.com

GOYA

Grades: 9-12

After our GOYA kickoff event was such a hit we sprung into October looking forward to crushing the corn maze as another fall festivity. Although this did not pan out due to the Nor'easter that came through, GOYA still had an amazing time carving pumpkins in the small hall and watching a movie with pizza on October 27th.

GOYA congratulates our parish on the occasion of our 60th Anniversary. We look forward to contributing and participating in the many festivities planned for this year.

Looking forward, the date for a "Friendsgiving" potluck is in the process of being chosen while the annual St. Demetrios Gingerbread Event will be held on Friday, December 7th and the GOYA Holiday Party will be on Saturday, January 5th. Finally, the 2018 GOYA is excited to sponsor a child from the Saint Nicholas Giving Tree that takes place every year during the holiday season. Watch for details about how you can help, coming soon. If you are a high schooler and are not receiving GOYA emails please email Sophia Kovatsis at sokovatsis@students.natickps.org to be added.

GOYA is for high school students, grades 9-12. If you are interested in joining, email Fr. Vinnie (frvincent@stdemetriosweston.org) or Jill Kovatsis (ja.k@verizon.net).

HOPE & JOY

Grades: Pre-K – 5

Our October Halloween Event was lots of fun. If you missed it be sure to join us for our next event.

Our November HOPE & JOY event will be on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH after Church in the small hall (approx. 12-2pm)

In the spirit of giving and spreading the love and word of Jesus we will be packing shoeboxes for OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD.

Toys, books, and items (can be used) will fill the boxes. This is a good opportunity for parents and children to do a big sweep of your overflowing playrooms before Christmas, and make impoverished children all over the globe very, very happy, but most importantly through this effort spread the word of Jesus' love.

If you have not heard of this before – go online and search OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD. The organizations sends 10-12 MILLION gift boxes around the world each Christmas! It is a very moving program.

There will be a toy/item donation box in the church by the office from now until November 11th. for anyone that can not attend and would like to contribute. This is open to any parishioners that would like to contribute items.

Email with full information will be sent out to the HOPE&JOY email list.

To add your name to the email list or with any questions please contact Anastasia Tanis Smith 617-834-3690 (cell/text) or Anastasia@Anastasiadesign.com

FAMILY FIRST FRIDAY

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING AND GINGERBREAD HOUSE MAKING

Join us on December 7th for our annual Tree Lighting and Gingerbread House making event. This is truly a wonderful way to bring together family and friends. Details and sign-up sheet to follow in the coming weeks.

THANKSGIVING

Our power is shut off,
and suddenly we become thankful for electricity.

Our garbage is not picked up, and suddenly we become thankful for the garbage collectors weekly stop.

A good friend dies,
and suddenly we discover how much he meant to us.

Our water becomes too polluted to drink, and suddenly we appreciate pure water.

Why is it, Lord, that we take for granted the uncounted blessings of life until they are removed from us?

We take for granted,
the mind you have given us,
the beauty of the earth around us,
the rain and soil combining to produce our food,
the love of family and friends surrounding us.

Today we thank you
For being patient with us
For not forgetting us when we forget You,
For loving and forgiving us,
For music and singing,
For rest and leisure,
For those who understand us,
For laughter and joy,
For being with us now,

Most of all we thank You for not withholding all the blessings of life from us even though we take them for granted.

Take us from worship into the world where we turn words of thanksgiving into deeds of service.

Amen

STEWARDSHIP

"DON'T THANK ME"

A mother baked some tasty buns one day. Her son took one and said, "Thanks, mom, for the delicious buns." The mother said, "Don't thank me. Thank the grocer who sold me this new flour." When the child went to thank the grocer, he was told, Don't thank me. Thank the miller who produced the flour." When he went to the miller, he was told, Don't thank me. Thank the farmer who grew the wheat." When the child went to the farmer, he was told, "Don't thank me. Thank God who provides the earth and the seed and the sun and the rain."

We thank God faithfully and systematically through the stewardship of our time, talents, and possessions. He is behind every blessing we have. "Bless the Lord, Oh my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

In Christ,
The Stewardship Committee

THE FR. MANIKAS LIBRARY

Books of the Month:

A Commentary on the Divine Liturgy

By Nicholas Cabasilas, Catalog #G

This book is invaluable for all those who wish to understand more about the theory and practice of worship in the Orthodox Church. It is a saving event in which man is called to participate here and now, in body and spirit as well as intellect, through the sacramental life of the Church.

Come Before God in Prayer and Solemn Feast

By Rev. Dr. Alkiviadis C. Calivas, Catalog #H

Provides readers with an introduction into the origins of Christian prayer and worship and its expression in the Orthodox Church through the daily, weekly, monthly and annual cycle of feasts and fasts.

To read further we invite you to our Library and see the books we have on the following subjects:

The Divine Liturgy (catalog G)

Sacraments (catalog I)

The Spiritual Life (catalog Q)

Christian Living (catalog R)

If you are looking for a specific book see Cindi Dabrowski during coffee or leave a note in the library. I will have a basket near the Card Catalog and check each week. Please include your telephone number so I may contact you.

The library is opened every Sunday after Liturgy. However, you are welcomed to visit the library when the Church office is opened. As outlined in the Library Policies and Procedures please fill out both cards and leave the orange card in the metal box. Date is the month and year when you borrow the book. This will help us to keep track of our books.

Remember, this library is for you and your family.

Thanks for interest.

THE REASON FOR THE SEASON...

THE 17TH ANNUAL ST. NICHOLAS GIVING TREE MINISTRY

For the last 17 years, our community has brought the miracle of the most holy season of Christ's birth to more than 3,200 children under the care of the Dept. of Children and Families. These children have been removed from their homes through no fault of their own, often separated from parents, siblings & grandparents ~ something difficult for us to fathom ~ Particularly during the blessed holidays.

Again this year, the names and "wish lists" of these children will be available in the parish hall on three successive Sundays

~ November 18, 25 & December 2 ~

Come join together with your family to sponsor one or more children for whom you can personally deliver the joy of Christmas!
