FR. NICK'S MESSAGE

YOU ARE MISSED

The mother of a large family of children was being interviewed by a newspaper reporter. The reporter asked her the difficult question, "Which one of your children do you love the most?" Her reply showed what a wise and loving mother she was. She told the reporter, "I love the one who is away until he returns home; the one who is sick until she is well; the one who is hurt until the hurt disappears; and the one who is lost until she is found." This is how God feels about us. He has missed you too.

St. Paul writes to the Corinthians (1 Cor 12), "For as the body is one and has many members but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. For, by one spirit, we were all baptized into one body...." You are part of this body of Christ. Without you, we are incomplete.

When we were baptized, God planted His light within our hearts so that we may shine for Him in this world. In the writings of the Church fathers we read, "When we are baptized, our soul, purified by the Spirit, becomes brighter than the sun." Our baptism was not the ending but the beginning of our growth in faith in Jesus Christ. Our calling as Orthodox Christians is to strive toward the example of Christ. He is our great example.

God took the first step at our baptism as an expression of His love. Passively we received Him. But there is nothing automatic about becoming Christian. It has been said that "It is not mere belonging to the Church that saves for there is no magic in Christianity, but we are saved by our personal acceptance of the Spirit of Christ."

Perhaps you or someone you know has drifted away from their spiritual roots and the Church. They may have been baptized in this or another Orthodox Church, attended Church School, Greek School and GOYA. They may have been in a dance group or played on the basketball team. But then something changed. In short, we got busy and slowly drifted away from the Church. Few people wake up one day and decide to leave the Church. Most just slowly drift away, always intending to come back—someday.

Each of us is born with a God-shaped vacuum in our heart. But this vacuum is in constant danger of being filled with the wrong things—love for money, our job, alcohol and drugs and more. But God is what belongs there. In Revelations chapter three, Christ says, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him and he with me."

It is my prayer that you will hear His voice and open that door and that you will say to Him, "I commit my life to you, from this day forward. I place You at the center of my life, to be my guide and my perfect example. Show me the plan You have for me. Use me in whatever way You see fit. And in all things, I take no glory for myself but give all the glory to You."

We would love to see all our faithful become part of that one body—Christ's Body! Please join your spiritual family at St. Demetrios for Sunday worship! We await and welcome you, for "you are missed."

With Love in Our Lord,

Fr. Nick

ST. DEMETRIOS: REFLECTIONS ON TRUE FRIENDSHIP

Each October, we reflect in The Vine about the life of St. Demetrios. He was a soldier, a leader, a thinker, a faithful Christian, a martyr and he is an inspiration to us all. But he was also a true friend: his dedicated friendship to Nestor, a young Christian, reflects the loving, sacrificial friendship of Christ to His Apostles and us all.

During the period of St. Demetrios' imprisonment by the Emperor Maximian (because of his Christian faith), St. Nestor visited him regularly and interceded with a host of authorities on his behalf. He did these things at great risk to his own person. Together, they strived, prayed and stayed hopeful in Christ. Even though it was risky for Nestor to be a true friend, He did it anyway. As Christ taught us all, Nestor knew what it meant to sacrifice for another: "Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). Christ gave all for His Apostles, for his friends, and for all of us—this example was not lost on Nestor.

Further, before the famous battle with Layios, the deadly gladiator, Demetrios also instilled in Nestor an unwavering conviction that God's power is truly with every believer, that the greatest difficulty can be overcome through faith. And this inspiring testimony from Demetrios led Nestor to inexplicable victory in the arena, in fact a merciful victory as Nestor spared Layios, to the chagrin of the screaming crowds. True friends inspire, guide and teach one another. True friends act with compassion. These, again, are what the Lord did for, and taught, His beloved friends. Even when the "lesson" was difficult, He loved them enough to teach them. Even when they did not listen to Him, He was compassionate enough never to give up on them.

In the end, Sts. Demetrios and Nestor were both martyred for their faith, but it is said that on that day so long ago, hundreds of non-believers became believers.

Christ's love radiated through their friendship, through their actions and behavior; the world could not help but be moved—and changed.

Upon this feast of our St. Demetrios parish, may we also be changed, moved. May we rediscover true sacrifice and compassion. May we seek guidance in the life of our Patron Saint, searching his holy life for inspiration and hope.

A blessed feast to us all!

ST. DEMETRIOS FEAST DAY SERVICES & CELEBRATIONS

Join us for Great Vespers on Oct. 25, 7 pm, with a reception to follow. As always, many thanks to Philoptochos for offering wonderful hospitality to our parish and sister parishes.

On Sunday the 24th, following the Divine Liturgy, we'll enjoy a delicious luncheon, in honor of our beloved Patron Saint.

All are invited to our festal celebrations—bring family and friends. Together, we'll celebrate the Feast of St. Demetrios and give thanks for our parish family!

Teaching Liturgy Oct. 17

As last fall, we'll once again offer a Sunday service interspersed with commentary, highlighting the major moments, hymns and prayers of the Liturgy. Please make a special effort to join us on the 17th. This is also a perfect day to bring friends and family members who may not understand the Liturgy or have questions about why we worship the way we do.

Prosfora Ministry:

"We offer to you these gifts from your own gifts..."

At each Divine Liturgy, a "prosfora"—a specially made bread—is used for the preparation of Holy Communion. This bread, that has a seal imprint on it, is baked and brought to Church by the faithful as their offering and participation in the Divine Liturgy. We thank those who faithfully bring and make "prosfora" throughout the year and invite others to join them in this meaningful ministry. On Oct. 15, there will be a Prosfora Workshop at St. Demetrios, 10 am – 12 pm. All are invited!

BUILDING ON OUR FAITH

OUR NEXT MONTH TOGETHER

During the second week in October, you will be receiving a very significant package in the mail. It will represent a precious affirmation of the faith we share in the future of Saint Demetrios Church and of Orthodoxy in America. Your package will contain a beautifully designed brochure premiering elements of the design of our NEW CHURCH. Also included will be a dramatically new pledge card that represents the road to the fulfillment of this new vision. It will invite you to participate in, without doubt, one of the most significant undertakings in the proud fifty year history of Saint Demetrios Church. This is one of the moments upon which our spiritual future will pivot.

We all know this moment has been coming—the moment when we are asked to gather as a family to read the brochure, unfold the pledge card and discuss together our pledge to the future of your Saint Demetrios and the generations of your family that it will serve.

Before sending this extraordinary package to you, your Building Committee has quietly sought and received pledges totaling almost half of the project budget voted at the Special General Assembly. An extensive architect selection process has yielded the beautiful design you will see depicted in the brochure. All this has been accomplished PRIOR to asking you to make a pledge. Why? To assure you our common dream can be fulfilled. To assure you that your pledge is a necessary step along a path that is set. To offer a way for you to participate with your SACRIFICIAL GIFT in this once-in-a-generation dream-come-true. How can anyone experience the rising of solid new walls and the placement of a stunning new dome and cross without seeking to play a role that will be recognized permanently and for generations to come?

In the September issue of The Vine, we discussed a number of important gatherings and events giving parishioners the opportunity to reflect on our glorious past and celebrate our bright future: our last Divine Liturgy in the current sanctuary, the ground breaking and the laying of the cornerstone of the new Church, the “topping off” of the structural steel of our new dome and the placement of the cross atop the dome, and obviously opening the doors of our new Church. Soon, you will be learning the specifics associated with the first of these events. On this momentous occasion, will you not feel proud to have made your pledge by October 30th and stand as a co-author of the great new future of our church?

—Peter Bassett

SAINTLY LIVES

JOEL THE PROPHET COMMEMORATED OCTOBER 19

St. Joel's ministry flourished in Judah about 830 B.C. His primary message was of repentance and "homecoming" to the Lord. He was also inspired by God to look nearly nine hundred years into the future and witness the birth of the Church (Joel 2:28-32). This magnificent day that he foretold was the first Pentecost, the coming of the Holy Spirit, following the Resurrection of Jesus. Joel prophesied—and St. Peter quotes the Prophet in Acts 2:17-21—that God would "pour out of (His) Spirit on all flesh" and "that whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Getting Practical: Talk to your child about the Prophets, how they were men driven by conscience to tell the truth in order to help God's people—and how sometimes they were attacked for being truthful. Let this lead to a discussion about how all of us will sometimes be unpopular if we tell the truth; point out that although this isn't easy, it brings us closer to God and connects us to the sacrifice of Jesus. We'll always feel better about our lives if we do the right thing!

...but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12)

"FAMILY NIGHTS" OCT. 1 AND NOV. 5

We look forward to another year of faith, fun and friendship with our 2010/11 Family Nights. This year's theme will be "Lending A Helping Hand," which will focus on building a spirit of outreach among our youth. To this end, our Oct. 1 guest speaker will be our own Kathy Bakes, who will share her excitement about a new outreach project—St. Demetrios "Helping Hands" at Chesterbrook Learning Center—in which we can all play a part. As always, HOPE, JOY and GOYA groups will enjoy age-specific sessions after our community dinner. It will be great to see friends old and new, and also plan to join us for our Nov. 5 event, when we'll help Mrs. Savage with St. Nicholas Tree cards and have a chance to think about the "reason for the season." Bring friends, neighbors and family—all welcome!

"PUMPKIN PRAYER"

Dear God,

As I carve my pumpkin help me say this prayer:

Open my mind so I can learn about You;

Take away all my sin and forgive me
for the wrong things I do.

Open my eyes so Your love I will see;

I'm so sorry for turning up my nose
to all You've given me.

Open my ears so Your word I will hear;

Open my mouth so I can tell others You're near.

Let Your light shine in all I say and do! Amen.

OCF: LOOKING FORWARD TO A YEAR OF FAITH, SERVICE AND FUN

Our unified St. Demetrios/Brandeis OCF enjoyed a kickoff movie night at the home of Peter Gavrilles last month (thanks, Peter!), and the group looks forward to a great fall/winter program. Peter is also our Parish Council representative this year, and we're thankful to him for fulfilling that role. October events include a planning session/volleyball night on the 6th (@St. Demetrios, 7 – 9 pm) and a discussion on the 20th (@Brandeis, 7 – 9 pm).

We're also working on a special project in coordination with the Middlesex County Sheriff's Association: we've promised to supply Sheriff DiPaola with 20 Thanksgiving dinners for Middlesex County veterans-in-need (5 more dinners than last year!) This awesome cause is close to our hearts and we hope you feel the same.

Will you help us with these offerings?

- 20 turkeys, frozen or fresh
- 80 canned/non-perishable sides: cranberry sauce, squash, stuffing, etc.
- 20 frozen/fresh pies
- Monetary donations to purchase any of the above

To donate or just learn about OCF, contact St. Demetrios Chair Peter Gavrilles (peter.gavrilles@maritime.edu), Brandeis President Kristina Yepez (klyepetz@brandeis.edu), or Advisors Chris Resmini (chrisresmini@gmail.com) and Chris Kourlos (kourkat@comast.net).

YOUTH BASKETBALL: SWISH!

September's Ice Cream Social/Registration Event was amazing! Thanks to all our parents, players and parishioners for supporting. It was also great to see everyone for our parent/player meeting on the 29th, when we discussed the season, shot around and enjoyed a pizza dinner. While game schedules are still forthcoming, this month's practices are the 13th, 20th and 27th, 6:30 – 8:30 pm (please see your child's coach for details). If you haven't registered your son or daughter yet, please contact one of our coaches ASAP. Registration cost this season is the same as last year: $35 per child. Thanks, and we look forward to a fantastic season.

A Child's Vision

My child took a crayon
 In her little hand
 And started to draw
 As if by command

I looked on with pleasure
 But couldn't foresee
 What the few simple lines
 Were going to be.

What are you drawing?
 I asked, by and by.
 I'm making a picture
 Of God in the sky.

But nobody knows
 What God looks like,
 I sighed.
 They will when I'm finished
 She calmly replied.

 Barbara and Alex

After an excellent visit to our sister parish in Cranston, RI last spring, our Saintly Lives players will look forward to presenting at St. Vasileos in Peabody on the 12th, where Alex Santangelo and Barbara Cambas will present the lives of St. Basil and St. Anna, respectively. There's always room for more performers and supporting roles—please contact Fr. Alex to connect with this unique and creative ministry. Much help is needed in preparation for Dec. 12!

THIS WORLD OF OURS . . .

The Fall is a lovely time of the year. One thinks of the words of the Psalmist: "The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament shows his handiwork." People leave the highways and turnpikes and go onto the country roads that display the splendors of the season. It is a sight to behold the hues and shades of red, orange, yellow and brown.

But Autumn is also a sad time of the year if we reflect that the trees and flowers lose their lovely foliage and seemingly fall asleep for the winter season. Yet, this is precisely what preserves the life of those plants. This is God's provision for the continuation of life.

And so this cycle in nature goes on, season upon season, year after year. We, too, are part of this vast cycle of life. The more we alienate ourselves from nature, the worse off we are. We are now reaping the bitter harvest of decades of pollution of the earth, the air and the water of our world. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof," said King David long ago and we are slowly learning the lesson of preserving this blue planet of life that is but a speck in the vast universe.

The Church has always considered God's creation, now redeemed and restored, as sacred. Water is blessed. Food is blessed. Branches and palms are blessed. God breathed into man to give him life. Jesus breathed upon the Apostles giving them the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins.... Yes, indeed, this world bears the imprint of the Lord's glory and love.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE: GIVING WITH GENEROSITY & CHEER

Stewardship is all about taking care of our Church. In fact, many older texts interchange the word "steward" with "caretaker." Whether this care is through the donation of our time, our talents or our treasures doesn't really matter. What matters is that we take it upon ourselves to give freely and willingly. The Bible says, "So let each one give as he intends in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Cor 9:7).

This is no different in modern times. Our Church needs our support. Our current Stewardship drive is currently behind last year's amount at the same time of year. To date we have received 390 pledges totaling $330K. Of this we have collected approximately $216K. Last year we had 425 pledges totaling $368K. Unfortunately as much as we try to control expenses, some are fixed and cannot be changed. Please try and "catch up" on your pledge for 2010. If you still have not submitted a pledge card, we have plenty available in the Church office. Credit card payments are always accepted. Soon our 2011 pledge drive will kick off as well as the building fund campaign. Please stay tuned for more information and our new Stewardship section of the website which is in development.

As we look to the future of our Church, let's remember what it takes to maintain our parish. Our operating expenses are close to $750,000 this year despite belt tightening. Our income is derived mostly from Stewardship while the balance comes from events such as the golf tournament, candles, trays, rental income (from the parish house) and other smaller items. Without a major fund raiser, and with Stewardship income decreased, how can the Church make up the difference? If everyone were to increase their Stewardship donation by only 10%, we would not face this situation. I know this is a lot to ask in challenging economic times. The St. Demetrios parish is not immune to the macroeconomic environment and we have to rely on our stewards to support the mission of the Church. Let's all dig a little deeper this year to insure our Church survives these times as it has in the past. No one else will do this for us. It's up to each and every one of us.

"You will never overcome God's generosity, even if you give away all that you have.... And however much you bring to him, always more remains. Nor will you give anything that is your own; for all things flow from God (St. Gregory the Theologian; Or 14.22).

MEDIA, WITNESS AND OUTREACH

A NEW OUTREACH: ST. DEMETRIOS "HELPING HANDS" AT CHESTERBROOK LEARNING CENTER

For several months, St. Demetrios volunteers have been dialoguing with Project Bread, the Dept. of Education and other agencies about the need for "after school snacks" at local schools and community centers. Many children in the greater Boston area cannot go home after school and depend on after school programs to offer them constructive activities and simple nourishment before dinner—and many may not have that dinner to look forward to. Chesterbrook Learning Center (a Waltham organization supported by the Waltham Police Dept. and Bentley University) is just such an organization, and has asked us for help in providing simple, nourishing after school snacks and general supplies for its children. With the compassionate help and support of our parish family, we're planning to launch "St. Demetrios Helping Hands" and do everything that we can to answer this call. In raising funds, seeking food donations, and the delivery of precious resources, we're looking forward to the support of our youth organizations, family night participants and the leaders of our parish ministries. Parishioners and families are already jumping on board! Please join the effort by contacting Kathy Bakes (Katerina.bakes@gmail.com; 203.610.3088) and look for news on our November launch event. Visit Chesterbrook's website to learn more: www.chesterbrookwaltham.org.

Special Appeal from Chesterbrook for October: Juiceboxes!

Please bring healthy juice boxes to the Church office, to Liturgy on Sundays, to Family Nights on Oct. 1 and Nov. 6—anytime! We'll make sure they get to Chesterbrook. Thanks for helping us kick off this first month of service. In addition to the office, donations can be left with Fr. Alex.

PHILANTHROPY and SOCIAL ACTION

BROWN BAG BLITZ SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3:
BENEFITING THE SALVATION ARMY MIRACLE KITCHEN!

On the 3rd, OCF members will hand out those familiar brown bags to all of our parishioners. Our Oct./Nov. segment will benefit the Miracle Kitchen ministry, and our goal is to collect as many general, non-perishable items as possible. Thanks to all for your ongoing, generous and loving efforts. Contact Lydia Santangelo to get involved: lydiaeventspclst@aol.com.
