You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following order:

---

No. 2011AP987

Nickel v. United States of America L.C.#2010CV1576

The court having considered the motion of interested party-appellant-petitioner, United States of America, to allow electronic service in lieu of paper service on parties not directly involved in the instant appeal, and the court noting that counsel for petitioners-respondents, Ted Nickel and Office of the Insurance Commissioner, does not oppose the request;

IT IS ORDERED that the motion is granted. For the remainder of this case, interested party-appellant-petitioner may effect electronic service on all entities, except for paper service to petitioners-respondents, on counsel for interested party-respondent, Ambac, on entities at a physical address for which the United States of America lacks a corresponding e-mail address, and on entities requesting paper service. This same filing procedure is available, upon notice to this court, to any other entity that wishes to file documents in this case. Those entities requesting paper service should notify interested party-appellant-petitioner and this court within 10 days of the date of this order.

A. John Voelker
Acting Clerk of Supreme Court
