Re: *In the Matter of the Rehabilitation of Segregated
Account of Ambac Assurance Corporation,
Case No. 10CV1576 (Dane County Circuit Court)*

Motion of LVM Bondholders and Wells Fargo: Proposed Order

Dear Judge Johnston:

As your Honor requested at Friday's hearing, we are hereby submitting a proposed form of Order granting (a) the motion of the LVM Bondholders challenging the allocation of the LVM Bond Policy to the Segregated Account, and (b) the related motion of Wells Fargo, as indenture trustee to the LVM Bondholders, as modified by Wells Fargo's joinder and partial withdrawal filed on June 21, 2010.

In addition, in the event your Honor denies these two motions, we are submitting certain limited comments to the proposed order denying these motions filed on July 8, 2010 by the Wisconsin Insurance Commissioner (the "OCI Proposed Order"). We have enclosed clean and blacklined copies incorporating our comments to that proposed order. Our comments address three issues.

First, the OCI Proposed Order contains certain factual inaccuracies concerning the motion papers filed by the parties. Our markup corrects these inaccuracies.

Second, the OCI Proposed Order requests that your Honor "reaffirm" certain findings of facts made in the May 27 Order. We respectfully submit that, because neither the Wisconsin Insurance Commissioner (the "OCI") nor Ambac Assurance Corporation ("Ambac") has submitted any evidence in connection with the present motions, no basis exists for the Court to "reaffirm" any of its prior findings of fact.

Third, the OCI Proposed Order requests that your Honor "reaffirm" certain conclusions of law from the May 27 Order. Such a "reaffirmation" is unwarranted because the issues on which the Court ruled in its May 27 Order are not before the Court in connection with the present motions.

We provided copies of the enclosed documents to counsel for OCI and Ambac yesterday evening. However, no consensus was reached between OCI and Ambac on the one hand, and the LVM Bondholders and Wells Fargo on the other, regarding the proper contents of the order.

We are available at the Court's convenience should your Honor have any questions. Because I am out of the office this week, I would ask that any communications be directed to my partner Amy Caton.

Respectfully submitted,

In the Matter of the Rehabilitation of:

Case No. 10-CV-1576

Segregated Account of Ambac Assurance Corporation

ORDER GRANTING MOTIONS OF WELLS FARGO BANK AND CERTAIN LVM BONDHOLDERS

This matter came before the Court on the motion filed on April 5, 2010, by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Wells Fargo”), as indenture trustee to the Las Vegas Monorail bonds (the “LVM Bonds”) to intervene in the judicial action related to the rehabilitation of Ambac Assurance Corporation (“Ambac”) and to modify the March 24, 2010 Injunction Order issued by this Court so as to remove the policy insuring the LVM Bonds (the “LVM Bond Policy”) from the Segregated Account, and the motion filed by certain institutional holders of LVM Bonds (the “LVM Bondholders”) on June 9, 2010, challenging the inclusion of the LVM Bond Policy in the Segregated Account and seeking certain related relief. The Wisconsin Office of the Commissioner of Insurance (the “OCI”) filed a brief in opposition to the Wells Fargo motion on June 10, 2010. Ambac filed a brief in opposition to the Wells Fargo motion on June 11, 2010.

On June 21, 2010, Wells Fargo filed a pleading (the “Partial Withdrawal and Joinder”) that, among other things, (i) withdrew every argument contained in its April 5, 2010 motion, except for the argument that the OCI violated the Equal Protection Clauses of the United States and Wisconsin Constitutions by improperly treating the LVM Bondholders differently from the other municipal bondholder insureds, and (ii) joined the LVM Bondholders’ June 9, 2010 motion. OCI and Ambac filed responsive briefing on June 30, 2010.

Based upon the papers filed by the parties and the arguments advanced by counsel for the parties at the July 9, 2010 hearing on these motions, and for other good cause, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The allocation of the LVM Bond Policy to the Segregated Account is contrary to law.
2. Ambac and OCI are directed to take all necessary steps to transfer the LVM Bond Policy from Ambac's Segregated Account to Ambac's General Account.
3. The motions of Wells Fargo (as modified by the Partial Withdrawal and Joinder) and the LVM Bondholders are GRANTED to the extent set forth above.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 2010.

In the Matter of the Rehabilitation of:

Case No. 10 CV 1576

Segregated Account of Ambac Assurance Corporation

ORDER DENYING MOTIONS OF WELLS FARGO BANK AND CERTAIN LVM BONDHOLDERS

This matter came before the Court on various motions of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and the motion filed on April 5, 2010, by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo"), as indenture trustee to the Las Vegas Monorail bonds (the "LVM Bonds") to intervene in the judicial action related to the rehabilitation of Ambac Assurance Corporation ("Ambac") and to modify the March 24, 2010 Injunction Order issued by this Court so as to remove the policy insuring the LVM Bonds (the "LVM Bond Policy") from the Segregated Account, and the motion filed by certain institutional holders of some Las Vegas Monorail bonds (LVM Bonds (the "LVM Bondholders," and, collectively, with Wells Fargo, the "Movants"); on June 9, 2010, challenging the inclusion of the policy or policies insuring the LVM bonds (the "LVM Bond Policy") in the Segregated Account, seeking to modify the injunction in force in this matter as to the LVM Bond Policy, and seeking to conduct discovery and to intervene as parties. Movants join each other's motions in the respects detailed in their respective motion papers, and seeking certain related relief. The Wisconsin Office of the Commissioner of Insurance (the "OCI") filed a brief in opposition to the Wells Fargo motion on June 10, 2010. Ambac filed a brief in opposition to the Wells Fargo motion on June 11, 2010.

On June 21, 2010, Wells Fargo filed a pleading (the "Partial Withdrawal and Joinder") that, among other things, (i) withdrew every argument contained in its April 5, 2010 motion, except for the argument that the OCI violated the Equal Protection Clauses of the United States and Wisconsin Constitutions by improperly treating the LVM Bondholders differently from the other municipal bondholder insureds, and (ii) joined the LVM Bondholders' June 9, 2010 motion. OCI and Ambac filed responsive briefing on June 30, 2010.

Based upon the briefing of the parties, other materials and affidavits on file, oral argument presented, and for other good cause, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

~~1. The Court reaffirms its May 27, 2010 Decision, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in this matter (particularly Findings 19-31 and 36 and Conclusions 2-5 and 8-9), and further holds as follows:~~

1. ~~2-~~The allocation of the LVM Bond Policy to the Segregated Account was lawful, and did not violate any provision of the Constitutions of either Wisconsin or the United States.

2. ~~3-~~Movants have not established legal grounds or good cause for being permitted to intervene or conduct discovery in regard to their motions. This denial of intervention does not preclude these Movants from asking to be heard in this matter at future proceedings pertaining to the Rehabilitator's plan of rehabilitation.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the above-referenced motions are denied.
