Prior to making any Material Decision, the parties intend to, to the best of their ability, and to the extent practicable, provide each other with copies of all material reports, analyses, and correspondence relevant to any Material Decision. form reasonably satisfactory to the Segregated Account (each, an “Annual Budget”) and, within forty-five (45) days after each March 30, June 30 and September 30, shall provide the Segregated Account with a comparison (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Segregated Account) of (a) actual expenses incurred through such date, and expenses expected to be incurred from such date until the end of the then-current fiscal year, to (b) the projected expenses as set forth on the Annual Budget.

SECTION 2.03 Notice of Material Changes. The parties shall timely notify each other of any relevant material changes in their respective assets, liabilities, business practices and activities, systems or employment of their respective work forces, as applicable.

At all reasonable times and upon reasonable notice and as often as either party reasonably may request, the other party shall permit designated representatives of the requesting party (including auditors) to meet with the officers, directors, employees, accountants, attorneys and agents of the other party.

SECTION 2.05. Management Services Agreement.

(a) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, if the Segregated Account terminates that certain Management Services Agreement, dated the date hereof, by and between Ambac and the Segregated Account (the “Management Services Agreement”) or replaces Ambac as the “Management Services Provider” thereunder (each a “Change of Services Provider Event”), the parties' respective obligations under Section 2.01 and elsewhere set forth in this Agreement (as well as the reporting and other obligations of the Segregated Account as set forth in the Reinsurance Agreement) shall remain in effect without alteration or diminishment. In furtherance of the foregoing, (i) the parties shall consult with each other during the prior notice period contemplated by Article II of the Management Services Agreement and thereafter, in each case as reasonably necessary under the circumstances, in order to facilitate the uninterrupted provision of the information and other benefits required to be provided hereunder by each party to the other party, (ii) the Segregated Account shall ensure that any new provider of services to the Segregated Account as a result of a Change in Services Provider Event (each a “Replacement Services Provider”) has the capacity to perform the services formerly provided under the Management Services Agreement, including without limitation either maintaining an annual Type II SAS 70 internal control letter reasonably acceptable to Ambac Financial Group, Inc. (“AFGI”) or providing AFGI with copies of such Replacement Services Provider's current documentation of control procedures (such as policies and procedures, process models and process flowcharts) which record the design of internal controls, and (iii) the Segregated Account shall at all times following a Change of Services Provider Event maintain appropriate internal controls and systems to ensure that Ambac will be able to meet its financial reporting, disclosure and legal obligations as described in Section 2.01(H) above and as may be necessary for the Segregated Account to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. Further, the Segregated Account shall immediately disclose to AFGI any instance of fraud or any significant change to the internal control environment.

(b) In addition to the foregoing, if, after a Change of Services Provider Event, the Segregated Account presents a demand for payment under the Secured Note, Reinsurance Agreement or Section 4.02 of this Agreement (other than demands for payment relating to regularly scheduled claim payments), and if the amount so demanded exceeds $20,000,000, then Ambac shall be given a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed 10 business days, to remit such payment, and such additional time shall not be considered a breach or default by Ambac of its obligations under the Secured Note, the Reinsurance Agreement or Section 4.02 hereof (as the case may be).

(c) The parties shall allow each other, upon reasonable prior notice and during regular business hours, through their respective employees and representatives (including, for the avoidance of doubt, in the case of Ambac, independent auditors of AFGI), the right to examine and make copies of their respective books and records and shall furnish each other with such financial and reporting data and other information as other party may from time to time request, for any business purpose (including, without limitation, in connection with the preparation of tax returns, regulatory filings and financial statements). In addition, the Segregated Account shall cause each Replacement Services Provider to permit Ambac and its affiliates, through Ambac's employees and representatives (including, for the avoidance of doubt, independent auditors of AFGI), the right to audit the Replacement Services Provider's internal control structure and to examine and make copies of any books and records pertaining the Segregated Account, and to furnish Ambac with such financial and reporting data and other information as Ambac may from time to time request. If a deficiency or control issue is noted, the Segregated Account will work with AFGI's representatives (including, for the avoidance of doubt, independent auditors of AFGI) to develop and implement an effective remediation strategy.

(d) In the event of any breach or threatened by either party of any of its obligations as set forth or described in this Agreement following a Change of Services Provider Event, the parties hereto agree that monetary damages would be an insufficient remedy for any such breach, and in addition to all other remedies available under applicable law, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to specific performance and to injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach.

ARTICLE III
TAX COMPLIANCE

SECTION 3.01. Responsibility for Filing of Tax Returns. The Segregated Account acknowledges that AFGI shall be responsible for filing a U.S. consolidated income tax return on behalf of the Ambac affiliated group, and that all members of the affiliated group, including Ambac and the Segregated Account, shall, pursuant to any applicable tax allocation agreement agreed to by the Segregated Account and Ambac, be liable for applicable U.S. Federal income taxes, as well as any applicable penalties and interest due thereon.

SECTION 3.02. Provision of Tax Information. The Segregated Account agrees to provide, to the best of its ability, correct and complete information to Ambac, and to comply with the requirements of federal law, in attempting to secure accurate tax identification numbers and other tax information from its representatives needed to enable Ambac to prepare and timely file consolidated tax returns on behalf of the Ambac affiliated group.

- (c) indemnification under commercially reasonable indemnification agreements of the Segregated Account with providers of financial, consulting, or legal services; and
- (d) amounts due, including amounts due under indemnification provisions, under agreements executed prior to the establishment of the Segregated Account, by AFGI or the Segregated Account, for financial, consulting or legal services provided to OCI;

provided, however, that, notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Ambac shall have no obligations under this Section 4.02 (a) unless and until all principal under the Secured Note has been paid by Ambac or (b) at any time that Ambac's surplus as regards policyholders, as reflected on its statutory financial statements (its "Surplus") is less than $100,000,000, or such higher amount as determined by the OCI pursuant to a prescribed accounting practice (the "Surplus Amount"), or to the extent that such payment would result in Ambac's Surplus being less than the Surplus Amount, it being understood that any payment deferred as a result of the foregoing in this clause (b) shall be due and payable at such time as the payment thereof would not result in Ambac's Surplus being less than the Surplus Amount.
