Aon Adds New Enhancements to its Property & Casualty Program for Insurance Agents

HATBORO, Pennsylvania. (August 16, 2012) – Aon Affinity,* a division of Aon plc (NYSE: AON) announced the addition of several new enhancements to its Agency Advantage Professional Liability Program for Property & Casualty (P&C) agencies with revenues under $10,000,000.

Featuring an abbreviated application process, a rapid online rating tool for preferred brokers, and a number of new policy enhancements, the changes are being provided at no additional charge to policyholders.

“These new enhancements are an important addition to our existing professional liability program for insurance agents,” said Dan Miller, president Aon Affinity. “This is part of our ongoing commitment to provide new and innovative products to help agents stay ahead of evolving risk trends in today’s complex business landscape.”

The Agency Advantage Program’s new policy enhancements include such items as a Diminishing Deductible, Wrongful Employment Practice Reimbursement, Security Incident Protection, an Expanded Coverage Definition, and New Extended Reporting Period Options due to Death or Disability or Retirement.

“The new policy enhancements were created through a deep understanding of our clients’ contemporary needs,” said Stacy Hoffman at Navigators Insurance Company, which underwrites the Program. “We believe they allow for more flexibility in addressing the complex specialty risks faced by today’s P&C agents.”

The Agency Advantage Program is offered through Affinity, a subsidiary of Aon plc, the leading global provider of risk management services, insurance brokerage and human capital consulting. The program is underwritten by Navigators Insurance Company, rated ‘A’ (Excellent) by A.M. Best and ‘A’ (Strong) by Standard & Poor’s.
