Dressage at Devon Sets 2015 Dates
For its 40th Anniversary Show

February 10, 2015 (Devon, PA) - Dressage at Devon (DaD), the premier Dressage show in the United States, has announced that the 2015 show will take place September 29 through October 4. This is one week later than it has been in the past.

“DaD was previously scheduled for the prior week but the Pope will be visiting Philadelphia. It’s exciting news for the area but the region’s hotels and venues expect to be quite full for the event. We wanted to make sure that our competitors, judges, volunteers and attendees can find a place to stay at a reasonable price,” said Lori Kaminski, President and CEO of DaD.

About Dressage at Devon

Dressage at Devon (www.dressageatdevon.org) has been a premier North American Equestrian event since its founding in 1975. It combines world-class dressage competition and the world’s largest open breed show with the international Fall Festival show and special activities for the entire family. The six-day event attracts hundreds of riders from around the world and thousands of spectators. Dressage at Devon is a 501(c) (3) PA non-profit organization, benefitting equine education.
