Dressage at Devon Elects New Chairman of the Board and Re-Elects Current President

Devon, PA (December 15, 2016) – At the November Meeting of the Board of Directors, Dressage at Devon (DAD) elected Robbie Kankus as Chairman of the Board and Phelps T. “Mike” Riley Vice Chair. At the November Membership Meeting Lori Kaminski was re-elected as President and CEO.

Robbie Kankus brings experience and a passion for non-profit organizations and is active in volunteer programs in science, engineering, history, education and animal welfare. Experienced in creating and renewing non-profit boards and professional associations she brings the leadership skills to develop and refine processes and activities as well as increasing funding and decreasing costs.

Robbie has served as Vice President – Customer Relations for DAD since 2010 and has been a Board Member since 2013. Now retired, Robbie was a Principal Project Manager for Exelon Generation, with oversight of complex projects including hydroelectric unit installation, business process development and tax regulation applicability. Robbie is a resident of Gradyville, PA.

Lori Kaminski has served as President and CEO of Dressage at Devon since 2009, working with the Board, members, volunteers, vendors, sponsors and the international dressage community, bringing her knowledge and expertise to every aspect of the show. She represents Region 1 on the United States Dressage Federation's Nominating Committee, is an FEI Level 1 Steward for Dressage, and through her equine management company, Chesapeake Equestrian Events, works with several USDF group member organizations as show secretary.

Lori is a Manager at Siemens Healthineers and a resident of Perryville, MD.

About Dressage at Devon

Dressage at Devon (www.dressageatdevon.org) has been a premier North American Equestrian event since its founding in 1975. It combines world-class dressage competition and the world's largest open breed show with the international Fall Festival show and special activities for the entire family. The six-day event attracts hundreds of riders from around the world and thousands of spectators. Dressage at Devon is a 501(c) (3) PA non-profit organization, benefitting equine education.
