Verse 1:

I left home with all my possessions
Seeking things this world could provide
But the road that I traveled soon ended
In a hog pen
I thought I would die;
Then one day I came to my senses
I went back down the road that leads home
But still in my heart burned a question ;
Would He forgive me and take me in

Chorus 1:

The first time I called Him, He came
With open arms He welcomed me in Though many times I rejected; Despising His name
The first time I called Him, He came

Verse 2:

Sins pleasures are just passing moments; When measured by eternity
And the things that you live for soon vanish
Like a vapor they'll all fade away
There'll come a day when you'll need a Savior
Though many times you've turned Him away
You can't stray so far He won't hear you; Let me tell you what happen to me

Chorus:

The first time I called Him, He came
I was unworthy to mention His name
Though many times I rejected
His love never changed
The first time I called Him, He came
